Vital and Health Statistics ,1989
National Hospital Discharge Survey ,1988 In Person Ivone Margulies,2019 In Person Reenactment in Postwar and Contemporary Cinema delineates a new performative genre based on replay and self awareness The book argues that in person reenactment an actual person reenacting her past on camera departs radically from other modes of mimetic reconstruction In Person theorizes this figure's protean temporality and revisionist capabilities and it considers its import in terms of social representativity and exemplarity Close readings of select historicized examples define an alternate confessional performative vein to understand the self reflexive nature of postwar and post holocaust testimonial cinemas The book contextualizes Zavattini's proposal that in neorealism everyone should act his own story in a sort of anti individualist public display Love in the City and We the Women It checks the convergence between verité experiments a heightened self critique in France and the reception of psychodrama in France Chronicle of a summer and The Human Pyramid in the late fifties And through Bazin it reflects on the quandaries of celebrity biopics how the circularity of the star's iconography is checked by her corporeal limits Sophia her Own Story and the docudrama Torero In Person traces a shift from the exemplary and transformative ethos of fifties reenactment towards the un redemptive stance of contemporary reenactment films such as Lanzmann's Shoah Zhang Yuan's Sons Andrea Tonacci's Hills of Chaos It defines continuities between verité testimony Chronicle and Moi un Noir and later para juridical films such as the Karski Report and Rithy Panh's S21 the Khmer Rouge Killing Machine suggesting the power of co presence and in person actualization for an ethics of viewership

Gender Challenges Bina Agarwal, 2015-12-21 An internationally acclaimed economist Bina Agarwal is known for her path breaking writings on agriculture property rights and the environment Her three volume compendium brings together a selection of her essays written over three decades Combining diverse disciplines methodologies and cross country comparisons the essays challenge standard economic analyses and assumptions from a gender perspective They provide original insights on a wide range of theoretical empirical and policy issues of continuing importance in contemporary debates The first volume spans varied dimensions of the author's writings on agrarian change from 1981 to the present It identifies gender inequalities in the impact of agricultural modernisation and technical change across Asia and Africa the links between women poverty and economic growth processes and data biases in measuring women's work It traces the gendered costs of droughts and famine and challenges top down methods of innovation diffusion Focusing on the key role of women farmers in food security it also offers innovative solutions including public land banks and group farming The second volume focuses on the author's paradigm shifting work on women's property status in South Asia Challenging conventional approaches to women's empowerment it demonstrates how promoting access to property especially land is key to enhancing women's economic and social well being and deterring domestic violence It details gender inequalities in inheritance laws public policies and land struggles and presents the bargaining framework for understanding and finding ways of overcoming these inequalities both within families and in markets communities and vis vis the state This third volume traces the relationship between gender and environmental change Critiquing ecofeminist assumptions it presents an alternative theoretical framework It also examines the causes of women's absence as well as the impact of their presence in environmental collective action Based on innovative fieldwork on community institutions for forest governance the author demonstrates how a critical mass of women can significantly improve conservation outcomes In conclusion she reflects on which features of feminist scholarship make for an effective challenge to mainstream economics
