Social Structure Of Islam Vol 12 Orientalism:

Orientalism: Early Sources, 2000 Islamic Law and Society in the Sudan Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2013-10-15 Few studies exist which deal with Islamic law in practice and this is among the first such studies in the English language for Islamic Africa It is significant that the present study was completed just prior to the extension of Islamic law as the sole governing law in the Sudan in 1983 for it captures many essentials of the Shari'a as it has been applied for decades prior to this important change Numerous movements for reform and change are discussed in the book which reflect the contemporary debate in the Sudan over the position of Shari'a in society Social Theory, Volume II Roberta Garner, Black Hawk Hancock, 2014-05-29 The third edition of this popular reader reflects considerable changes The framework for understanding theory as a set of conversations over time is maintained and deepened but Volume II now begins with a focus on key transitional theorists who helped reconceive of classical theory in new ways Extending from the classical tradition chapters on race gender culture media and globalization show how contemporary theory builds on the past even as it moves in new directions New contextual and biographical materials surround the primary readings and each chapter includes a study guide with key terms discussion questions and innovative classroom exercises The result is a fresh and expansive take on social theory that foregrounds a plurality of perspectives and reflects contemporary trends in the field while being an accessible and manageable teaching tool The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 6, Muslims and Modernity: Culture and Society since 1800 Robert W. Hefner, 2010-11-04 Unparalleled in its range of topics and geographical scope the sixth and final volume of The New Cambridge History of Islam provides a comprehensive overview of Muslim culture and society since 1800 Robert Hefner's thought provoking account of the political and intellectual transformation of the Muslim world introduces the volume which proceeds with twenty five essays by luminaries in their fields through a broad range of topics These include developments in society and population religious thought and Islamic law Muslim views of modern politics and economics education and the arts cinema and new media The essays which highlight the diversity and richness of Islamic civilization engage with regions outside the Middle East as well as within Islam's historic heartland Narratives are clear and absorbing and will fascinate all those curious about the momentous changes that have taken place among the world's 1.4 billion Muslims in the last two centuries Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law, Volume 12 (2005-2006) Eugene Cotran, Martin Lau, 2007-12 Practitioners and academics dealing with the Middle East can turn to the Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law for an instant source of information on the developments over an entire year in the region The Yearbook covers Islamic and non Islamic legal subjects including the laws themselves of some twenty Arab and other Islamic countries The publication's practical features include articles on current topics country surveys reflecting important new legislation and amendments to existing legislation per country the text of a selection of documents and important court cases a Notes and News section and book reviews Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women s rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles Islam, Liberalism, and Ontology Joseph J.

Kaminski, 2021-03-30 This book offers comparative ontologies of both Islam and liberalism as discourses more broadly construed The author argues that despite recent efforts to speak of overlapping consensus and discursive congruence the fundamental categories that constitute Islam and Liberalism remain very different and that these differences should be taken seriously Thus far no recent scholarly works have explicitly or meticulously broken down where these differences lie The author rigorously explores questions related to rights moral epistemologies the role of religion in the public sphere and more general approaches to legal discourse via primary and canonical sources constitutive of both Islam and liberalism He then goes on to articulate why communitarian modes of thought are better suited for engaging with Islam and contemporary socio political modes of organization than liberalism is This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of politics and international relations Islam liberalism and communitarianism American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 26:2 Norman

A Post-Exotic Anthropology of Soqatra, Volume II Serge D. Elie, 2020-06-22 This two volume book offers a panoramic explanatory narrative of Soqatra Island s rediscovery based on the global significance of its endemic biodiversity The first volume A Post Exotic Anthropology of Soqatra A Mesography of an Indigenous Polity in Yemen initiated the analytical inventory of the four key vectors of Soqatra s transition process through a discussion of the first two economic disarticulation and political incorporation This volume A Post Exotic Anthropology of Soqotra Cultural Environmental Annexation of an Indigenous Community completes the analytical inventory by exploring the other two pivotal vectors of transition cultural modernization and environmental annexation These two vectors encompass the critical sociocultural spheres and environmental domains in which Soqotra s transformation process is unfolding The origin of these vectors is situated within Soqotra s long history of exogenous mediations by external actors and their symbolic appropriation of the island into an imaginative geography The legacy is a symbolic curse which has made Soqotra into an ideal playground for fantasist cultural or environmental experiments Accordingly this volume undertakes first a systematic inventory of the communal effects engendered within the domains of cultural modernization dissonant linguistic attitudes alienating consumption practices divergent religious affiliations and differentiating economic aspirations Second it anatomizes the process of environmental annexation through the reconstruction of the formulation and implementation process of a biodiversity conservation and sustainable development experiment in which the island and its residents are appropriated into an anachronistic paradigm a pastoral ecotopia as a blueprint of their future

Empires and Nations from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century

Antonello Biagini,2014-08-11 This volume is the result of an international conference held at Sapienza University in Rome on June 20 and 21 2013 as the final stage of the PRIN Progetto di rilevante interesse nazionale project Empires and Nations from the 18th to the 20th century during which scholars from all over the world academics specialists young researchers PhD students and post doctorates confronted diverse but connected topics on the relations between multinational empires and the idea of the nation In this way the reality of the historical empires and national states was represented and concepts such as identity nationality and sovereignty analyzed The second volume is dedicated to the age of empires and colonialism with particular reference to the colonial policy of the Great Powers England Russia and Italy the reality of post colonial states and to the different patterns of decolonization including specific cases such as South Sudan Azerbaijan Iraq Afghanistan and Palestine Particular attention is paid to the economic systems of different countries and to the area of Southeastern Europe particularly to Romania and its multicultural area Transylvania To the Great War and the dissolution of the multinational empires ample space is dedicated providing insights on border issues ethnic conflicts foreign policies the Adriatic question and the territorial conflict between Yugoslavia and Italy The final part of the book analyzes communism the bipolar system and the East West conflict that divided Europe for almost half a century with specific contributions that discuss post communist nations and states

Bryan S. Turner,Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir,2016-03-03 Taking a thematic approach Bryan S Turner draws together his writings which explore the relationship between Islam and the ideas of Western social thinkers Turner engages with the broad categories of capitalism orientalism modernity gender and citizenship among others as he examines how Muslims adapt to changing times and how Islam has come to be managed by those in power

Sponsoring Sufism F. Muedini,2015-07-15

Sponsoring Sufism argues that governments are sponsoring Sufism not only because they see it as an apolitical movement that won't challenge their existing authority but also that ties to Sufi orders gives them religious credibility something they seek as they face the rise of Islamist parties Islamic Urban Studies Masashi Haneda, 2013-10-28 The term Islamic cities has been used to refer to cities of the Islamic world centring on the Middle East Academic scholarship has tended to link the cities of the Islamic world with Islam as a religion and culture in an attempt to understand them as a whole in a unified and homogenous way Examining studies books articles maps bibliographies of cities which existed in the Middle East and Central Asia in the period from the rise of Islam to the beginning of the 20th century this book seeks to examine and compare Islamic cities in their diversity of climate landscape population and historical background Coordinating research undertaken since the nineteenth century and comparing the historiography of the Maghrib Mashriq Turkey Iran and Central Asia Islamic Urbanism provides a fresh perspective on issues that have exercised academic concern in urban studies and highlights avenues for future research Islam: State And Society Klaus Ferdinand, 2013-01-11 Published in the year Islam State And Society is a valuable contribution to the field of Middle Eastern Studies Ismaili Literature Farhad Daftary, 2005-03-23 Ismaili Studies represents one of the most recent fields of Islamic Studies Much new research has taken place in this field as a result of the recovery of a large number of Ismaili texts Ismaili Literature contains a complete listing of the sources and secondary studies including theses written by Ismailis or about them in all major Islamic and European languages It also contains chapters surveying Ismaili history and developments in modern Ismaili Studies The Rise of Islam and the Bengal Frontier, 1204-1760 Richard M. Eaton, 2023-07-28 In all of the South Asian subcontinent Bengal was the region most receptive to the Islamic faith This area today is home to the world's second largest Muslim ethnic population How and why did such a large Muslim population emerge there And how does such a religious conversion take place Richard Eaton uses archaeological evidence monuments narrative histories poetry and Mughal administrative documents to trace the long historical encounter between Islamic and Indic civilizations Moving from the year 1204 when Persianized Turks from North India annexed the former Hindu states of the lower Ganges delta to 1760 when the British East India Company rose to political dominance there Eaton explores these moving frontiers focusing especially on agrarian growth and religious change In all of the South Asian subcontinent Bengal was the region most receptive to the Islamic faith This area today is home to the world's second largest Muslim ethnic population How and why did such a large Muslim population emerge there And how does su The Gaze of the West and Framings of the East S. Nair-Venugopal, 2012-05-09 This volume explores Western attitudes towards the phenomenon of Easternization drawing upon Eastern perspectives and examining the impact upon contemporary culture to argue that Easternization is another type of globalization Islam and the Orientalist World-system Khaldoun Samman, Mazhar Al-Zo'by, 2015-11-17 Featuring Immanuel Wallerstein Joseph Massad Marnia Lazreg and other well known and emerging new authors this book seeks a more accurate understanding of Islam and Islamic societies role and relations to global cultural and economic realities The book confronts a trend today of analyzing Islam as a cultural system that stands outside of and even predates modernity The authors see this trend as part of a racist discourse unaware of the realities of contemporary Islam Islamic societies today are products of the world capitalist system and cannot be understood as being separate from its forces The authors offer a more carefully constructed and richer portrait of Islamic societies today and forcefully challenge the belief that Islam is not part of nor much affected by the modern world system

Defining Islam Andrew Rippin, 2016-04-08 Ever since a group of people came into existence who called themselves Muslims and followed Islam questions of what it means to be a member of this group who is to be included excluded and what the requirements for membership are have proven to be both divisive and defining For scholars and critics the issue of what constitutes or defines Islam whether examining the history of the religion its specific traditions sectarian politics or acts of terrorism is central to any understanding of issues cultures and ideas Defining Islam brings together key classic and contemporary writings on the nature of Islam to provide student readers with the ideal collection of both primary and critical sources
