Dalit Autobiography: A Critical Study Dipak Giri, 2025-03-01 Dalit Autobiography is a distinctive literary form in the sense that it shifts from personal I to communal we. This shifting from individual to communal differentiates such autobiographies from mainstream autobiographies where the autobiography mainly centers round personal experiences of the autobiographer concerned. On the other hand Dalit Autobiographies deal not only with the individual writer but also with the community he or she belongs to. Transformation of individualistic I into communal we makes such autobiographies completely distinctive literary form. Such autobiography reflects not only Dalit life and suffering but also their voice of protest and resistance. In this sense Dalit autobiographers are activists and writers as well. Among Dalit autobiographers irrespective of gender there are innumerable autobiographies written by male and female Dalit writers. The present book is my little endeavour to articulate the voice of Dalit autobiographers which is often neglected by the mainstream socio cultural life.

Analysis of these representations can illuminate societal attitudes toward trauma, memory and healing as well as shed light on larger issues such as war, violence, oppression and injustice and help the readers gain a deeper understanding of the complexities of human emotions, reactions and coping mechanisms. The ethical questions discussed in the book also engage with the notions of authenticity and responsibility, prompting the readers with a sense of validation and solidarity.
