Handbook of Decolonial Community Psychology Christopher C. Sonn, Jesica Siham Fernández, James Ferreira Moura Jr., Monica Eviandaru Madyaneringrum, Nick Malherbe, 2024-10-21 This handbook offers refined interpretations of decolonial thought methodologies and practices in community psychology. As a representative mapping of the broad range of decolonial cosmovisions experiences and praxes in community psychology and allied disciplines around the globe it brings together contributions from North America Latin America Europe Oceania Africa and Asia. It offers an overview of community psychology with a decolonial focus and from a transnational perspective transcending intellectual geographical and cultural borders and constraining identities affirming and celebrating the unique identities experiences and positions of its contributors within the global landscape of knowledge and politics. The handbook illuminates the dynamic intersections between resistance and colonial legacies foregrounding the enduring struggles against settler colonialism and racial capitalism across diverse geographies temporalities and histories. Underscoring the urgency of addressing inter connected local and global challenges such as land rights livelihoods and dignified existence it offers hopeful yet critical perspectives on radical social justice struggles around the globe. The volume brings together contributions from scholars academics educators researchers practitioners activists and community collaborators and its chapters range in style and format. Some are more aligned with academic writing while others in the spirit of decolonizing disciplinary logics are structured through more undisciplined less constrained writing forms. Each author was invited to question the coloniality of power in and beyond community psychology. As such the handbook contains productions that trouble the manifestations of coloniality both in the past and in the present as well as in the different territories of the Majority World particularly within settler colonial nation states. As a seminal work the Handbook of Decolonial Community Psychology will further define and shape the contours of knowledge in decolonial community psychology and inspire new generations of scholars practitioners students and community organizers to advance the field with innovative ideas and transformative practices.

The New Dynamics of Identity Politics in the Americas Olaf Kaltmeier,2017-07-05 Multiculturalism has shaped identity politics in the Americas over the past decades as illustrated by politics of recognition affirmative action and increasing numbers of internationally recognized cultural productions by members of ethnic minorities Hinting at postcolonial legacies in political rhetoric and practice multiculturalism has also served as a driving force behind social movements in the Americas Nevertheless in current academic discussions and public debates on migration globalization and identity politics concepts like new ethnicities ethnic groupism creolization hybridity mestizaje diasporas and post ethnicity articulate positionings that are profoundly changing our understanding of multiculturalism Combining theoretical reflections with case studies the aim of this book is to demonstrate the current dynamics of post multicultural politics in the Americas This book was based on a special issue of Latin American and Caribbean Ethnic Studies Handbook of Quality of Life and Social Change Cornelia C.

Walther,2024-10-04 This handbook provides an extensive overview of the links between quality of life and social change as pursued in not only humanitarian and development work but also in the private sector and academia It combines theoretical and practice focused chapters and addresses socio economic environmental and political governance aspects as well as communication and human behavioural factors that favour or hamper social change dynamics The handbook showcases vast diversity both in the authorship which includes practitioners from a wide range of sectors and academics from various disciplines as well in geographical contexts and regions The chapters cover a wide range methods and tools which facilitate an inclusive understanding of the relationship between quality of life and social change They show connections between micro individual changes and the dynamics that derive from them at the meso community macro country and meta levels planet of quality of life and the social change processes sustained through time The chapters demonstrate that quality of life and social change mutually condition and nurture each other The handbook overall provides a holistic perspective to social change processes that includes both material and non material aspects relating to quality of life This comprehensive and one of a kind volume is of interest to a wide readership from students and researchers of social development quality of life and wellbeing research to development workers policy makers and other government officials The handbook is bundled with an interactive online course Studies of Childhoods in the Global South Afua Twum-Danso Imoh,Lucia Rabello de Castro,Orna Naftali,2024-10-18 What would a body of literature focusing on Southern childhoods look like when epistemologically driven by the demands social cultural economic political of the localities in which they are shaped and produced To answer this question this book explores locally driven perspectives of childhoods in diverse contexts in the Global South to produce knowledge of Southern childhoods determined not by Northern priorities and frameworks but by local needs and contexts Given the intensification of global processes and the extent to which the local and the global intersect in the everyday lives of children and their families this edited volume demonstrates that a focus on the epistemological demands of localities necessarily grapples with global as well as local processes and concepts Chapters in this collection include empirical research on child participation and activism schooling educational experiences child work and street children They use methodologies ranging from arts based methods to participant observation and engage with theories relating to child participation agency and vulnerability to produce a key resource on Southern childhoods The

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
