Mental Disorders of the New Millennium Thomas G. Plante Ph.D.,2006-08-30 Tragically the daily news is filled with stories about hurtful and seemingly mystifying problems in human behavior Each morning we face news stories about murder suicide drunken driving accidents child molestation drug abuse gambling criminal behavior and so forth The cover stories of news magazines from Time and Newsweek to U S News and World Report often focus on abnormal psychology and behavior connected to these particular topics as well as to autism child hyperactivity depression eating disorders and more In these volumes experts in their respective fields draw together compelling chapters on the abnormal psychology and resulting behaviors that are today most often and most dramatically at issue in our world including such topics as workaholism Written with accessibility in mind the set is intended to bridge the gap between research monographs and self help books to give layreaders and students solid and up to date information without having to translate jargon heavy text Most people today are impacted by abnormal behavior or mental illness in some way Some suffer from their own mental disorders or live with someone who does Others have been victimized by people experiencing abnormal psychology including the 20% of American women and 15% of American men reporting they were sexually abused as children Mental illness and abnormal behavior touches all of us This set can help us cope

International Handbook of Violence Research Wilhelm Heitmeyer,John Hagan,2003-12-31 An international manual is like a world cruise a once in a lifetime experience All the more reason to consider carefully whether it is necessary This can hardly be the case if previous research in the selected field has already been the subject of an earlier review or even several competing surveys On the other hand more thorough study is necessary if the intensity and scope of research are increasing without comprehensive assessments That was the situation in Western societies when work began on this project in the summer of 1998 It was then too that the challenges emerged any manual especially an international one is a very special type of text which is anything but routine It calls for a special effort the state of the art has to be documented for selected subject areas and its presentation made as compelling as possible The editors were delighted therefore by the cooperation and commitment shown by the eighty one contributors from ten countries who were recruited to write on the sixty two different topics by the constructive way in which any requests for changes were dealt with and by the patient response to our many queries This volume is the result of a long process It began with the first drafts outlining the structure of the work which were submitted to various distinguished colleagues Friedheim Neidhardt of Berlin Gertrud Nunner Winkler of Munich and Roland Eckert of Trier to name only a few supplied valuable comments at this stage
