In Light of Rome John F. McGuigan, Jr., Frank H. Goodyear III, 2022-08-09 This comprehensive study of Rome's contribution to the early history of photography traces the medium's rise from a fledgling science to a dynamic form of artistic expression that forever changed the way we perceive the Eternal City. The authors examine the diverse transnational group of photographers who thrived in the cosmopolitan art center of Rome and the pivotal role they played in the refinement and technical development of the nascent medium in the nineteenth century. The book ranges from the earliest pioneers the French daguerreotypist Joseph Philibert Girault de Prangey and the Welsh calotypist Calvert Richard Jones to the work of the Roman School of Photography and its successors among them James Anderson and Robert Macpherson of Britain Frédéric Flachon Firmin Eugène Le Dien and Gustave Le Gray of France and Giacomo Caneva Adriano de Bonis and Pietro Dovizielli of Italy. Lavishly illustrated with 112 plates many never before published by nearly fifty practitioners this volume expands our understanding of the place of Rome in early photography. An exhibition of the same title to open at the Bowdoin College Museum of Art in December 2022 accompanies this study. Archives and Images, 2004 Catalog Sears, Roebuck and Company, 1910 Library of Congress Catalog: Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Library of Congress, 1968 Amateurs, Photography, and the Mid-Victorian Imagination Grace Seiberling, 1986-05 This book results from research which was begun with all the casualness but inherent seriousness of the nineteenth century amateur. I had the privilege of frequent access to the archives of the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House and began to go through the nineteenth century photographs in a systematic way. I wanted to go beyond the clichés of the history of photography as a series of often reproduced masterworks and to find out something about the history of seeing or at least of thinking about images in the nineteenth century.
