Sunday By The Pool In Kigali:

A Sunday at the Pool in Kigali Gil Courtemanche, 2007-12-18 A Sunday at the Pool in Kigali is a moving passionate love story set amid the turmoil and terror of Rwanda's genocide. All manner of Kigali residents pass their time by the pool of the Mille Collines hotel: aid workers, Rwandan bourgeoisie expatriates, UN peacekeepers, prostitutes. Keeping a watchful eye is Bernard Valcourt, a jaded foreign journalist, but his closest attention is devoted to Gentille, a hotel waitress with the slender elegant build of a Tutsi. As they slip into an intense improbable affair, the delicately balanced world around them, already devastated by AIDS, erupts in a Hutu-led genocide against the Tutsi people. Valcourt's efforts to spirit Gentille to safety end in their separation. It will be months before he learns of his lover's shocking fate. Un dimanche à la piscine à Kigali Gil Courtemanche, 2006 Bernard Valcourt, journaliste québécois, part au début des années 90 au Rwanda pour installer une télévision libre et indépendante. Sur place, il découvre l'univers des Occidentaux réunis chaque semaine autour de la piscine d'un hôtel, mais aussi la violence dans le pays, les prémices du génocide avec les exactions des milices, les massacres dans les villages. Premier roman. Visual Peace Frank Möller, 2013-10-18 This book introduces a new research agenda for visual peace research, providing a political analysis of the relationship between visual representations and the politics of violence, nationally and internationally. Using a range of genres from photography to painting, it elaborates on how people can become agents of their own image. Remembering Genocide Nigel Eltringham, Pam Maclean, 2014-06-27 In Remembering Genocide, an international group of scholars draw on current research from a range of disciplines to explore how communities throughout the world remember genocide. Whether coming to terms with atrocities committed in Namibia and Rwanda, Australia, Canada, the Punjab, Armenia, Cambodia, and during the Holocaust, those seeking to remember genocide are confronted with numerous challenges. Survivors grapple with the possibility or even the desirability of recalling painful memories. Societies where genocide has been perpetrated find it difficult to engage with an uncomfortable historical legacy. Still to forget genocide, as this volume edited by Nigel Eltringham and Pam Maclean shows, is not an option. To do so reinforces the vulnerability of groups whose very existence remains in jeopardy and denies them the possibility of bringing perpetrators to justice. Contributors discuss how genocide is represented in media, including literature, memorial books, film, and audiovisual testimony. Debates surrounding the role museums and monuments play in constructing and transmitting memory are highlighted. Finally, authors engage with controversies arising from attempts to mobilise and manipulate memory in the service of reconciliation, compensation, and transitional justice. Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia Célérier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engaged literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers, Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia Clrier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Sembene and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop Vronique Tadjo Alain Mabanckou and L onora Miano among others Wilder Millie Kerr,2022-08-18 FINALIST IN THE 2024 AAAS

Baker,Andrew Fisher,2011-03-10 In recent years interest in schools outreach and academic enrichment has increased dramatically reflecting a greater social conscience and awareness of the impact that universities can have on the wider community The transferable skills that academics bring to schools need to be honed for this new learning environment as delivery methods and success benchmarks are radically different in a schools context This collection addresses the numerous issues raised when arts and humanities academics become involved with schools bringing together practitioners from a broad range of fields within the arts and humanities to share experiences and insights Postcolonial Poetics Patrick Crowley,Jane Hiddleston,2011-01-01 Responding to calls to focus on postcolonial literature's literary qualities instead of merely its political content this volume investigates the idiosyncrasies of postcolonial poetics However rather than privileging the literary at the expense of the political the essays collected here analyze how texts use genre and form to offer multiple and distinct ways of responding to political and historical questions By probing how different kinds of literary writing can blur with other discourses the contributors offer key insights into postcolonial literature's power to imagine alternative identities and societies

Revival and Reconciliation Phillip A. Cantrell, 2022-01-18 Phillip A Cantrell II takes a critical look at the Anglican Church's crucial role in many aspects of Rwanda's history particularly its complicity with the current Rwandan regime He boldly illuminates the Anglican Church's culpability in the events leading to the genocide calling attention to the consequences of the church's unwavering support for the Rwandan regime

Bearing Witness Sherrill Grace, Patrick Imbert, Tiffany Johnstone, 2012-10-01 As the centenary of the Great War approaches citizens worldwide are reflecting on the history trauma and losses of a war torn twentieth century It is in remembering past wars that we are at once confronted with the profound horror and suffering of armed conflict and the increasing elusiveness of peace The contributors to Bearing Witness do not presume to resolve these troubling questions but provoke new kinds of reflection They explore literature the arts history language and popular culture to move beyond the language of rhetoric and commemoration provided by politicians and the military Adding nuance to discussions of war and peace this collection probes the understanding and insight created in the works of musicians dramatists poets painters photographers and novelists to provide a complex view of the ways in which war is waged witnessed and remembered A compelling and informative collection Bearing Witness sheds new light on the impact of war and the power of suffering heroism and memory to expose the human roots of violence and compassion Contributors include Heribert Adam Simon Fraser University Laura Brandon Carleton University Mireille Calle Gruber Universit La Sorbonne Nouvelle Janet Danielson Simon Fraser University Sandra Djwa emeritus Simon Fraser University Alan Filewod University of Guelph Sherrill Grace University of British Columbia Patrick Imbert University of Ottawa Tiffany Johnstone PhD Candidate University of British Columbia Martin L schnigg Graz University Lauren Lydic PhD University of Toronto Conny Steenman Marcusse Netherlands Jonathan Vance University of Western Ontario Aritha van Herk University of Calgary Peter C van Wyck Concordia University Christl Verduyn Mount Allison University and Anne Wheeler filmmaker

Rwanda Genocide Stories Nicki Hitchcott, 2015-11-26 A critical study of fictional responses by authors inside and outside Rwanda to the 1994 genocide

Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana, 2015-11-06 Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills le pays des mille collines a reference to its many lush and green rolling hills Moreover for many Rwandans at least in the past Rwanda in spite of its small size is vast in fact it means the universe This idyllic view however sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that unfolded since the 1950s the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti Tutsi pogroms undemocratic regimes the civil war of 1990 1994 and more significantly the April July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and the killing of Hutu who opposed the killings The 1994 genocide against the Tutsi remains the most defining single event in contemporary Rwanda and many people in the world today know of this central African nation from the prism of extreme mass violence that sullied the end of the 20th century amid international indifference and has since haunted the world's conscience This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rwanda

Travel, Humanitarianism, and Becoming American in Africa K. Mathers, 2011-01-19 Travel Humanitarianism and Becoming American in Africa uses observations of American travelers to southern Africa to ask why is Africa so important to Americans These travel stories show how encounters with Africans lead to a problematic desire to save Africa Kathryn Mathers argues that this is then seen as a way to resolve the tensions between aspirations for a globally responsible America and the current reality of its geopolitical role This book draws fascinating new conclusions about the connections and disconnections on which contemporary American identity is formed
