Teaching Human Dignity Social Change Lessons For Every Teacher:

Educating for Human Dignity Betty A. Reardon, 2010-08-03 Issues of universal human rights are critically important topics in education today Educators scholars and activists urge schools to promote awareness and understanding of human rights in their curricula from the earliest levels Written by by Betty A Reardon one of the foremost scholars on human rights education for the primary and secondary levels Educating for Human Dignity is designed for both teachers and teacher educators It is the first resource offering both guidance and support materials for human rights education programs from kindergarten through high school It opens possibilities for an holistic approach to human rights education that directly confronts the values issues raised by human rights problems in a context of global interrelationships Elementary

Schooling for Critical Democracy Jesse Goodman, Jeff Kuzmic, Xioyang Wu, 1992-02-06 This book examines the way in which elementary schooling can be used as a means to encourage critical democracy in the United States It focuses primarily on the dialectical tensions and issues that emerge from the conflicting values of individuality and community through a portrayal of an independent elementary school committed to democratic education Dysconscious Racism, Afrocentric

Praxis, and Education for Human Freedom: Through the Years I Keep on Toiling Joyce E. King, 2015-04-10 A dynamic leader and visionary teacher scholar Joyce E King has made important contributions to the knowledge base on preparing teachers for diversity culturally connected teaching and learning and inclusive transformative leadership for change often in creative partnership with communities Dr King is internationally recognized for her innovative interdisciplinary scholarship teaching practice and leadership Her concept of dysconscious racism continues to influence research and practice in education and sociology in the U S and in other countries This volume weaves together ten of her most influential writings and four invited reflections from prominent scholars on the major themes the work addresses In the World Library of Educationalists
