diverse students Teaching Language as Action in the ELA Classroom Richard Beach, Faythe Beauchemin, 2019-03-14
This book explores English language arts instruction from the perspective of language as social actions that students and teachers enact with and toward one another to create supportive trusting relations between students and teachers and among students as peers Departing from a code based view of language as a set of systems or structures the perspective of languaging as social actions takes up language as emotive embodied and inseparable from the intellectual life of the classroom Through extensive classroom examples the book demonstrates how elementary and secondary ELA teachers can apply a languaging perspective Beach and Beauchemin employ pedagogical cases and activities to illustrate how to enhance students engagement in open ended discussions responses to literature writing for audiences drama activities and online interactions The authors also offer methods for fostering students self reflection to improve their sense of agency associated with enhancing relations in face to face rhetorical and online contexts Teacher Development for Content-Based Language Education Susan Ballinger, Ruth Fielding, Diane J. Tedick, 2024-09-10 This book fills a large gap in our understanding of how to prepare teachers for the challenging but increasingly popular task of integrating content and language instruction It brings together findings on content based teacher education from Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America in order to inform researchers and teacher educators and enable them to play a critical role in the continued success of such programs It offers a solid grounding in theories and applications of content based approaches with empirical studies investigating teacher identity materials design use of cognitive discourse functions and best practices for teacher education Responding to the growing popularity of content based programs and the shortage of qualified teachers for these contexts this book promotes teacher researcher collaboration and provides support for trainee teachers in service teachers and course leaders

Teaching Language Arts to English Language Learners Anete Vásquez, Angela L. Hansen, Philip C. Smith, 2013-03-12
