Teaching with Spiritual Power! Roy B. Zuck, 1993-05-01

The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation Cleophus J. LaRue, Luiz C. Nascimento, 2020-08-03 Christianity is turning brown and moving south The Christianity the West has known is in recession and has all but dwindled out of recognition in the opening years of the twenty first century Well over half of the world's Christians now live in the Global South Africa Asia and Latin America They are according to Aberdeen missiologist Andrew Walls the new Representative Christians What they think about Christianity will matter more and more and what North America thinks about Christianity will matter less and less This massive shift in geography and theological point of departure will have a major impact on Christian preaching now and into the future The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation seeks to begin the conversation about how preaching in the Global South will inform the whole of Christian preaching in the coming years

Understanding Spiritual Power Marguerite G. Kraft, 2003-08-18 While secularized cultures of the West have a great deal of difficulty dealing with the spiritual as a real non imaginary dimension of life most of the world's peoples do not Having worked and studied among peoples of several non Western societies Marguerite Kraft is convinced that coming to terms with spiritual power presents one of the greatest challenges for all those who work among non Westerners in pastoral or mission situations Understanding Spiritual Power addresses the dynamics of the felt need for spiritual power in relation to a people's assumptions values and commitments in order to provide a foundation for meaningful Christian witness in power oriented societies The Western Church Kraft argues under pressure from modern rationalism has largely lost awareness of God's power and position vis a vis the spiritual realm so important in other societies Indeed this loss of power could be one reason for the interest in Eastern and New Age philosophies on the part of Westerners disillusioned with the modern worldview Having worked among the Kamwe in Nigeria the Thai in Asia and the Navajo in North America Kraft focuses on specific ways in which people in these three societies view reality and suggests how the gospel can be articulated in forms they can understand Understanding Spiritual Power offers a theological as well as a practical perspective on spiritual power By exploring living societies providing examples and case studies and offering specific strategies this book makes a powerful case for rethinking and recasting traditional missiological methods At the same time it helps Western Christians with ears to hear question whether they might not learn as much from those with whom they work as they seek to teach Theological Interpretation of Culture in Post-Communist Context Dr Ivana Noble, 2013-06-28

Twenty years after the fall of Communism in Central and East Europe is an occasion to reevaluate the cultural and theological contribution from that region to the secularization post secularization debate Czech theologian Ivana Noble develops a Trinitarian theology through a close dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both Western and Eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts Herald of Gospel Liberty, 1909 American Evangelicalism II Norris A.
