Kodály Today Mícheál Houlihan, Philip Tacka, 2015 Kodály Today provides teachers with a step by step road map for developing children s performance creative movement and literacy skills in an organic and thoughtful manner Through six years of field testing with music teachers in the United States Great Britain and Hungary the home country of Zolt n Kod ly authors Miche l Houlahan and Philip Tacka have developed a methodology specifically for 21st century classrooms Houlahan and Tacka use the latest research findings in cognition and perception to create a system not only appropriate for children s developmental stages but also one which integrates vertically between elementary music classes The methods outlined in this volume encourage greater musical ability and creativity in children by teaching students to sing move play instruments and develop music literacy skills In addition Kod ly Today promotes critical thinking problem solving and collaboration skills Although the book uses the Kod ly philosophy its methodology has also been tested by teachers certified in Orff and Dalcroze and has proven an essential guide for teachers no matter what their personal philosophy and specific training might be The new edition of Kod ly Today provides a fully revised and updated core text as well entirely new chapters on the application of the Kod ly method to the elementary choir and the use of technology in the Kod ly classroom In addition the revisions integrate it fully with the Kod ly Today and the graded Kod ly Today K 5 Handbooks Series feature methodology and sequential lesson plans specifically developed for the 21st century They are sure to be an essential guide for music teachers everywhere from back cover

Seeing Sense Jake Hope,2020-07-24 Foreword by Sir Philip Pullman CBE FRSL Illustrated foreword by Chris Riddell OBE The burgeoning field of visual literacy can be universally understood across a wide variety of cultural backgrounds regardless of traditional literacy levels A key tool for navigating digital devices there is often an antipathy surrounding visual literacy borne out of stigma and at times intimidation Seeing Sense brings together research and best practice from different organisations and institutions all over the world to showcase the role of visual literacy as a tool for promoting reading It will be key in raising awareness among librarians and education practitioners promoting aspiration and achievement among the children and young people they work with Coverage includes an overview of visual literacy as a tool for reading development the role of visual literacy in design and display within libraries and resource centres advice for library and information professionals on how to gain greater confidence in using and understanding visual literacy as part of strategies to engage readers a number of practical case studies to illustrate the power and potency of visual literacy as a key tool for making reading accessible engaging and appealing for all

Dyslexia and Effective Learning in Secondary and Tertiary Education Morag Hunter-Carsch,Margaret Herrington,2001-10-22 Recent policy initiatives illuminate the need for greater teacher awareness about dyslexia in secondary and tertiary education Yet the debates about dyslexia are often narrowly based and can exclude some teachers This book attempts to open up the debate by bringing together different ways of talking and thinking about dyslexia Fundamental questions about how to respond to dyslexia in teaching and support contexts are addressed and the significance of exploratory conversations between learners and tutors is recognised The need to restructure the structured approach and to consider meta affectivity as well as metacognition is explored Practitioners in both secondary and tertiary sectors can gain ready access to contributions from internationally respected writers and teachers in the field Alan Hurst's preface refers to this important book as paving the way to a more truly inclusive attitude and approach to education in and beyond compulsory schooling
