Teaching Translation and Interpreting 4 Eva Hung, 2002-06-20 This volume contains selected papers from the 4th Language International Conference on Teaching Translation and Interpreting Building Bridges which was held in Shanghai in December 1998 The collection is an excellent source of ideas and information for teachers and students alike With contributions from five continents the topics discussed cover a wide range including the relevance of translation theories cultural and technical knowledge acquisition literary translation translation and interpreting for the media Internet related training methods and tools for student assessment While complementing the volumes of the previous three conferences in exploring new methods and frontiers this collection is particularly strong on case studies outside of the European and Anglo American spheres

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 4 Eva Hung, 2002

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 2 Cay Dollerup, Anne Lindegaard, Annette Lindegaard, 1994-01-01 Selected papers from this second conference on Translator and Interpreter Training With contributions from five continents the articles deal with global challenges taking into account the role of the translator in societies knit together by one tongue and those in which languages are the repositories of national cultures such as India The main merit of this volume is that it shows how translator training is tackled in the main translator training courses around the world what requirements are made on the students and what solutions are given The various approaches provide a wealth of translator training ideas Complementing the first volume of papers from the Language International conference this second volume deals with a wide variety of aspects in this interdisciplinary field of study dubbing subtitling simultaneous consecutive interpreting court interpreter training linguistic features cognitive aspects cultural aspects terminology and specialisation computeraided translation in practice translation procedures at the European Commission etc

Translation and Cultural Change Eva Hung, 2005-05-26 History tells us that translation plays a part in the development of all cultures Historical cases also show us repeatedly that translated works which had real social and cultural impact often bear little resemblance to the idealized concept of a good translation Since the perception and reception of translated works as well as the translation norms which are established through contest and or consensus reflect the concerns preferences and aspirations of their host cultures they are never static or homogenous even within a given culture This book is dedicated to exploring some of the factors in the interplay of culture and translation with an emphasis on translation activities outside the Anglo European tradition particularly in China and Japan

Expertise and Explicitation in the Translation Process Birgitta Englund Dimitrova, 2005-09-22 This book addresses the complexities of the translation process Informed by theoretical and methodological advances in translation studies research on writing and the expertise paradigm it explores translation as a text reproduction task With triangulation of data from Russian Swedish translation think aloud methodology and computer logging of the writing process it makes a cross sectional comparison of subjects with different amounts of translation experience highlighting crucial aspects of professional competence and expertise in translation The book also elaborates a method for a combined product and process analysis applying it to the study of one type of explicitation increased cohesive explicitness of the target text The results have implications for translation theory and pedagogy This volume will be of interest to translation scholars and translator trainers irrespective of language combination as well as to specialists in Russian and Swedish It will also appeal to researchers on expertise in other domains

Sociocultural Aspects of Translating and Interpreting Anthony Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Zuzana

Jettmarova, 2006-01-01 Translation Studies has recently been searching for connections with Cultural Studies and Sociology

This volume brings together a range of ways in which the disciplines can be related particularly with respect to research methodologies The key aspects covered are the agents behind translation the social histories revealed by translations the perceived roles and values of translators in social contexts the hidden power relations structuring publication contexts and the need to review basic concepts of the way social and cultural systems work Special importance is placed on Community Interpreting as a field of social complexity the lessons of which can be applied in many other areas The volume studies translators and interpreters working in a wide range of contexts ranging from censorship in East Germany to English translations in Gujarat Major contributions are made by Agn s Whitfield Daniel Gagnon Franz P chhacker Michaela Wolf Pekka Kujam ki and Rita Kothari with an extensive introduction on methodology by Anthony Pym

Functional Approaches to Culture and Translation Dirk Delabastita, Lieven D hult, Reine Meylaerts, 2006-10-31 This volume contains a generous selection of articles on translation by Professor Jos Lambert K U Leuven It traces the intellectual itinerary of their author who started out as a French and Comparative Literature scholar some four decades ago trying to get a better grip on the problem of inter literary contacts and who soon became a key figure in the emergent discipline of Translation Studies where he is widely known as an indefatigable promoter of descriptively oriented research This collection shows how Jos Lambert has never stopped asking new questions about the crucial but often hidden role of language and translation in the world of today It includes some of the author s classic papers as well as a few lesser known ones that deserve wider circulation The editors introduction and the bibliography complete this thought provoking survey of the career of one of the most creative researchers in the field
