Sixty Years The RCAF And CFB Air Command 1924-1984:

Sovereignty and Command in Canada-US Continental Air Defence, 1940-57 Richard Goette, 2018-07-09 The 1940 Ogdensburg Agreement entrenched a formal defence relationship between Canada and the United States But was Canadian sovereignty upheld Drawing on untapped archival material Sovereignty and Command in Canada US Continental Air Defence 1940-57 documents the close and sometimes fractious relationship between the two countries Richard Goette challenges prevailing perceptions that Canada's defence relationship with the United States eroded Canadian sovereignty He argues instead that a functional military transition from an air defence system based on cooperation to one based on integrated and centralized command and control under NORAD allowed Canada to retain command of its forces and thus protect Canadian sovereignty Goette combines historical narrative with conceptual analysis of sovereignty command and control systems military professionalism and civil military relations In the process he provides essential insights into the Royal Canadian Air Force's paradigm shift away from its Royal Air Force roots toward closer ties with the United States Air Force and the role of the nation's armed forces in safeguarding its sovereignty Canadian Warbirds of the Biplane Era Harold A. Rose,2013-10-28 Why was Canada not preparing for the Second World War when the rest of the world was ready to meet Hitler s threats Despite Canada s active participation in the First World War which many claimed made Canada a nation the country was almost defenceless in September 1939 when war was declared again Larry D Rose a long time journalist and a military specialist examines the military s own failures the hidden agenda of Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King and the divisions within Canada leading up to Canada s entry into the war He suggests that the lack of preparedness was directly responsible for two of Canada s costliest military defeats the battle of Hong Kong and Dieppe Canadian
