Poverty and Small-scale Fisheries in West Africa Arthur E. Neiland, Christophe Béné, 2013-04-17 This book arises from case studies and two back to back workshops held in Cotonou Benin in November 2001 They were the combination of much experience and knowledge gathered in the West Africa region and were brought about to explore the concept of poverty especially how it is a part of the life of fishing communities and our ways of thinking about resolving the issue The workshops were conceived as a partnership between the UK Department for International Development DFID the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO and 25 countries of West Africa working together through the Sustainable Fisheries Livelihood Programme SFLP to join forces with the Centre for the Economics and Management of Aquatic Resources CEMARE The SFLP with its remit of poverty alleviation in West African artisanal fisheries communities through better governance and improved policies to involve communities in management of the resources on which their livelihoods depend had quickly realised that it needed to define what and whom it was targeting In this respect the two large back to back workshops marked a milestone for the SFLP Those participating in the workshop soon emphasised that we need to push forward our ideas from the previous simplistic less than a dollar a day type definitions to show that poverty is multi faceted and a dynamic feature of human society The African Book Publishing Record ,1991 □□□□□□□□ ,1992
