Suicidal Adolescents:

Treating Depressed and Suicidal Adolescents David A. Brent, Kimberly D. Poling, Tina R. Goldstein, 2011-06-16 Grounded in decades of research and the clinical care of thousands of depressed and suicidal teens this highly accessible book will enhance the skills of any therapist who works with this challenging population The authors describe the nuts and bolts of assessing clients and crafting individualized treatment plans that combine cognitive and behavioral techniques emotion regulation interventions family involvement and antidepressant medication Illustrated with many clinical examples each chapter includes a concise overview and key points Reproducible treatment planning forms and client handouts can also be downloaded and printed by purchasers in a convenient full page size

Dialectical Behavior Therapy with Suicidal Adolescents Alec L. Miller, 2017-05-19 Filling a tremendous need this highly practical book adapts the proven techniques of dialectical behavior therapy DBT to treatment of multiproblem adolescents at highest risk for suicidal behavior and self injury The authors are master clinicians who take the reader step by step through understanding and assessing severe emotional dysregulation in teens and implementing individual family and group based interventions Insightful guidance on everything from orientation to termination is enlivened by case illustrations and sample dialogues Appendices feature 30 mindfulness exercises as well as lecture notes and 12 reproducible handouts for Walking the Middle Path a DBT skills training module for adolescents and their families Purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print these handouts and several other tools from the book in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size See also Rathus and Miller's DBT Skills Manual for Adolescents packed with tools for implementing DBT skills training with adolescents with a wide range of problems

Treatment Approaches with Suicidal Adolescents James K. Zimmerman, Gregory M. Asnis, 1995-04-03 This practical guide reviews current knowledge regarding the biological psychological and social risk factors for adolescent suicide Contains clinical guidelines for a variety of treatment modalities such as crisis intervention psychopharmacological management intervention family centered psychodynamic cognitive behavior and group therapies Features a program for increasing adolescent participation in outpatient therapy and considers possible future directions of treatment

Family Therapy with Suicidal Adolescents Anthony P. Jurich, 2012-01-26 This book describes a blend of insight oriented behavioral and strategic family therapy which the author has developed over thirty four years of dealing with suicidal adolescents It aims not to replace other forms of therapy but to augment the therapist's own therapeutic style The book offers an informative and personally told story bringing together scholarship and meaningful glimpses into the thought processes of suicidal youth Written in an understandable friendly and practical style it will appeal to those in clinical practice as well as graduate level students pursuing clinical work

Evidence-Based Treatment Approaches for Suicidal Adolescents Michele Berk, Ph.D., 2019-03-12 The book includes a chapter written by the treatment developer's on each of the six treatments that have been shown in randomized controlled trials to reduce suicidal and or self harm behavior in adolescents with prior histories of these behaviors Preventing Adolescent Suicide Dave Capuzzi, Larry B. Golden, 1988 First Published in 1988 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Adolescent Health Care Lawrence S. Neinstein, 2008 This practical easy to use guide is a staple in health care facilities that treat adolescents is widely used for board preparation and is recommended by the American College of Physicians for their internal medicine library The substance abuse section has been completely reorganized and new chapters cover psychosomatic illness as well as complementary medicine Suicide in Adolescence René F.W. Diekstra, Keith E. Hawton, 2012-12-06 The official death rates from suicide vary considerably between countries in the world for which data are available They range from 3 to 45 persons a year per 100 000 of population Historically the higher rates of suicide are in the older age groups and in males However the general trend in the last twenty years has been for suicide increasing in the younger age groups 15 34 and in females It has been suggested that this development is related to the phenomenon of attempted suicide of which the rates in most industrialized countries have doubled and in some countries even tripled over the past two decades The average rate of attempted suicide is now estimated to be around 200 per 100 000 for males and 350 for females Almost two thirds of these occur before the age of thirty Although the majority of attempted suicide are not intended to be lethal once a suicide attempt has been made there is more likelihood of subsequent death by suicide As many as ten percent of people who have made a previous unsuccessful attempt commit suicide at a later stage in their lives persons with increased likelihood to commit suicide are youngsters from disrupted families and from families with a history of suicide drug and alcohol addiction those who have failed at school the unemployed and those suffering from depression Adolescent Suicide Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry. Committee on Adolescence, 1996 Even the most skilled therapist may underestimate suicide potential Careful assessment and competent psychiatric intervention cannot always predict the suicidality of a particular person Adolescent Suicide GAP Report 140 presents techniques that allow psychiatrists and all those caring for the health and welfare of adolescents to respond to signals of distress with timely therapeutic intervention It also suggests measures of anticipatory prevention Adolescent Suicide presents an overview of adolescent suicidal behavior It explores risk factors the identification and evaluation of the suicidal adolescent and approaches to therapy It offers both historical and cross cultural perspectives the relevance of suicide to adolescent development mental health training needs regarding suicidality and related issues such as public health policies and medicolegal concerns The risk of suicide presents a unique crisis in adolescent development For this reason all mental health professionals will find this report an indispensable tool in the treatment of adolescents at risk for suicide Drawing from years of combined experience this committee has applied its expertise on adolescent development to the sobering problem of suicide Child and Adolescent Suicide , 1981 Evaluating and Treating Adolescent Suicide Attempters Anthony Spirito, James C. Overholser, 2003-01-05 Evaluating and Treating Adolescent Suicide Attempters provides a comprehensive overview of the emotional behavioral and cognitive characteristics of adolescents who have attempted suicide Each chapter opens with a case study vignette from the author s extensive clinical files followed by a summary of the empirical literature Assessment and treatment practices close each chapter While suicide is the third largest killer of adolescents most suicide attempts do not result in death Therefore the treatment of the suicide attempter following the attempt becomes a significant part of the clinician s work with these adolescents Moreover the precursors and behavioral markers for a suicide attempt become important signals for the school counselor youth worker or therapist This book also include assessment measures to use when evaluating an adolescent who has attempted suicide Includes an outline form of an assessment battery for adolescents who have attempted suicide Analyzes and discusses treatment and case studies Presents detailed descriptions of specific therapy techniques useful with adolescents who attempt suicide Includes succinct reviews of the literature ways to measure relevant factors related to suicidal behavior tips for clinicians and reviews of pertinent assessment measures

ADOLESCENT DEPRESSION AND SUICIDE John S. Wodarski,Lois A. Wodarski,Catherine N. Dulmus,2002-01-01 This text addresses the very serious issue that too many of our adolescents must face that of depression and suicide The Surgeon General s Report indicates that ten percent of our youth are at any one point in time in America suffering from a mental illness If not treated they can go on to have a series of problems such as delinquency and truancy and may end up in prison This book presents an empirically based interventive approach to helping adolescents and families deal with adolescent depression and suicide No other text focuses on this significant social issue facing adolescents and their families In a unique approach the text combines theory intervention and empirically based techniques for practitioners working with the adolescent and his or her family It will be of interest to those in social work sociology psychology and child and family development Chapters include The Epidemic of Child and Adolescent Depression and Suicide Assessment of Depression Substance Abuse and Suicidal Behavior in Children and Adolescents Interventions for Prevention and Treatment Coping with Adolescent Depression and Suicide Curriculum and Family Intervention Lewis's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Andrés Martin,Fred R. Volkmar,Melvin Lewis,2007 Established for fifteen years as the standard work in the field Melvin Lewis s Child and Adolescent Psychiatry A Comprehensive Textbook is now in its Fourth Edition Under the editorial direction of Andr s Martin and Fred R Volkmar two of Dr Lewis s colleagues at the world renowned Yale Child Study Center this classic text emphasizes the relationship between basic science and clinical research and integrates scientific principles with the realities of drug interactions This edition has been reorganized into a more compact clinically relevant book and completely updated with two thirds new contributing authors The new structure incorporates economics diversity and a heavy focus on evidence based practice Numerous new chapters include genetics research methodology and statistics and the continuum of care and location specific interventions A companion Website provides instant access to the complete fully searchable text Adolescent Suicide Joy S. Martyniuk,1988 Adolescent Suicide Paul R. Robbins,1997-11-15 Suicide is now the third leading cause of death among adolescents in the United States and some studies suggest that as many as 75 percent of all teenagers have considered killing themselves Current research on young people who are suicidal those who attempt and those who succeed is discussed in a plain way Among the wide ranging topics covered are the prevalence of adolescent suicide racial and gender differences methods used in the study of suicidal behavior associated behavioral problems e g drugs and alcohol psychological profiles precipitating events for suicide attempts teenage suicide clusters the effects of suicide on family and friends the treatment of suicidal adolescents and most importantly strategies for intervention and prevention Suicide Prevention in Schools Antoon A. Leenaars, Susanne Wenckstern, 1991 Argues that schools have a much larger role to play in the prevention of suicide among children and adolescents than they have generally undertaken hitherto Sets out various ways in which teachers can detect suicidal tendencies and make appropriate interventions

Adolescent Health, 1991 Suicide and self harm in young people Eve Griffin, Elaine McMahon, Laura Hemming, Jo Robinson, 2023-02-10 Suicidal Behavior in Children and Adolescents Barry M. Wagner, 2009-10-13 In this remarkably clear and readable evaluation of the research on this topic Barry Wagner presents the current state of knowledge about suicidal behaviors in children and adolescents addressing the trends of the past ten years and evaluating available treatment approaches Wagner provides an in depth examination of the problem of suicidal behavior within the context of child and adolescent behavior Among the developmental issues covered are the evolving capacity for emotional self regulation change and stresses in family peer and romantic relationships and developing conceptions of time and death He also provides an up to date review of the controversy surrounding the possible influence of antidepressant medications on suicidal behavior Within the context of an integrative model of the suicide crisis Wagner discusses issues pertaining to assessment treatment and prevention International encyclopedia of adolescence Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2007 Publisher description
