

Psychologists of suicide, however, do largely overlook such complex issues. It is undoubtedly significant that the American Psychological Association, which is sponsoring this symposium, has not included any such symposium on suicide. This is especially true since, as we know, psychology began a century ago studying what it called the mind, and studying the mind has been the primary business of psychology for almost a century.

Other interesting evidence upon this issue, after almost a century, comes from research with human subjects. The subjects of these studies, however, had no idea that they were being studied or recorded.

NICHOLAS OF SUICIDE

It is true, as suicide cases suggest, that some persons, particularly those already in mental or physical distress, may have different motives for suicide than philosophical philosophers. But the latter are not concerned with suicide.

Psychologists

Other evidence shows that suicide is a complex issue which some persons do not understand or cannot understand. Philosophers, however, are not concerned with such issues, and indeed, some persons do not understand such issues.

Psychologists

Psychologists, however, are concerned by philosophers' problems. But, as we know, psychologists are not concerned by philosophers' problems. It is not surprising, then, that the American Psychological Association, which is sponsoring this symposium, has not included any such symposium on suicide.
