Sun Rises:

The Sun Rises Stuart Blackburn, 2010-03-02 At the centre of this study is a shaman's chant performed during a three week long feast in the eastern Himalayas The book includes a translation of this 12 hour text chanted in Apatani a Tibeto Burman language and a description of the events that surround it especially ritual exchanges with ceremonial friends in which fertility is celebrated The shaman's social role performance and ritual language are also described Although complex feasts like this one among Apatanis have been described in northeast India and upland Southeast Asia for more than a century this is the first book to present a full translation of the accompanying chant and to integrate it into the interpretation of the social significance of the total event

Judaism and Christianity in the Age of Constantine Jacob Neusner, 2008-09-15 With the conversion of Constantine in 312 Christianity began a period of political and cultural dominance that it would enjoy until the twentieth century Jacob Neusner contradicts the prevailing view that following Christianity's ascendancy Judaism continued to evolve in isolation He argues that because of the political need to defend its claims to religious authenticity Judaism was forced to review itself in the context of a triumphant Christianity The definition of issues long discussed in Judaism the meaning of history the coming of the Messiah and the political identity of Israel became of immediate and urgent concern to both parties What emerged was a polemical dialogue between Christian and Jewish teachers that was unprecedented In a close analysis of texts by the Christian theologians Eusebius Aphrahat and Chrysostom on one hand and of the central Jewish works the Talmud of the Land of Israel the Genesis Rabbah and the Leviticus Rabbah on the other Neusner finds that both religious groups turned to the same corpus of Hebrew scripture to examine the same fundamental issues Eusebius and Genesis Rabbah both address the issue of history Chrysostom and the Talmud the issue of the Messiah and Aphrahat and Leviticus Rabbah the issue of Israel As Neusner demonstrates the conclusions drawn shaped the dialogue between the two religions for the rest of their shared history in the West

Confronting Creation Jacob Neusner, 2004-06-15 By setting forth the book of Genesis as it is re presented in the rabbinic statement Genesis Rabbah Neusner demonstrates the way in which Judaism confronted creation and the Genesis story In Confronting Creation the author presents a new analytical translation of Genesis Rabbah a document that came to closure around 400 C E What made that particular time crucial in the life of Israel and the Jewish people is an event that also helped shape the entire history of Western civilization the rise of Christianity to the status of the official religion of the Roman Empire The Judaic sages rereading of the Torah s accounts of the beginning of the world and of Israel took place during a time of significant change in Western civilization That fact explains the importance of this reading of Genesis to Western civilization because Genesis Rabbah illuminates the Judaic tradition in contemplating God s creation of the world

Inside the covers of this book you will find the Real Scriptures of the Christian churches Many church leaders know that other Christian churches hold to these books but they are only willing to state what they have been brain washed to believe that is about the other inferior books It isn t in the canon of scripture formed of course by the early Catholic Church at various stages and Councils from the fourth century A D therefore no one has the right to change what is in the canon of scripture and the Catholic Church changed it in their councils not in agreement of other Christians but to hide their offence at the words of God They would not even imagine that different churches have different scriptures and assume that the correct canon of scripture must be the one first declared by the Catholic Church and its priests but other priests must be considered demented or apostate but they are not affected by the changes they made to the canon of Scripture over many centuries They will not consider the canons of Orthodox Churches or others because they vary in different regions of the world So is European Christianity based in the Vatican City right about all its holy scriptures while everyone else s church scriptures are false scriptures Ethiopia it seems got most books of scripture right even with their translation into an ancient language
