McGlasson,2015-10-02 The present volume is the third in a five volume study of church doctrine The multivolume set covers the major parts of church doctrine Canon God Creation Reconciliation and Redemption The first volume begins with an introduction to the entire project on why doctrine matters which stresses the ecumenical global and above all biblical horizons of church doctrine as a primary expression of Christian witness The second volume discusses the doctrine of God

The purpose of this third volume is to reaffirm the traditional church doctrine of Creation and yet to do so in a way that submits that tradition to the overruling overpowering authority of Scripture God the Creator according to the Bible owns the entire universe it does not belong to humankind We live in service of his covenant of grace but we do so along with our fellow creatures in a common vulnerability and finitude The volume addresses the question of how the church doctrine of Creation speaks to the manifold ecological crisis of our time Church doctrine is not a luxury but a necessity for the living community of faith by which its witness in word and deed is tested against the one true measure of Christ the risen Lord     The Magical
