Sunburned Faces:

Multiculturalism in Israel Adia Mendelson-Maoz, 2015-03-15 By analyzing its position within the struggles for recognition and reception of different national and ethnic cultural groups this book offers a bold new picture of Israeli literature Through comparative discussion of the literatures of Palestinian citizens of Israel of Mizrahim of migrants from the former Soviet Union and of Ethiopian Israelis the author demonstrates an unexpected richness and diversity in the Israeli literary scene a reality very different from the monocultural image that Zionism aspired to create Drawing on a wide body of social and literary theory Mendelson Maoz compares and contrasts the literatures of the four communities she profiles In her discussion of the literature of the Palestinian citizens of Israel she presents the question of language and translation and she provides three case studies of particular authors and their reception Her study of Mizrahi literature adopts a chronological approach starting in the 1950s and proceeding toward contemporary Mizrahi writing while discussing questions of authenticity and self determination The discussion of Israeli literature written by immigrants from the former Soviet Union focuses both on authors who write Israeli literature in Russian and of Russian immigrants writing in Hebrew The final section of the book provides a valuable new discussion of the work of Ethiopian Israeli writers a group whose contributions have seldom been previously acknowledged The picture that emerges from this groundbreaking book replaces the traditional homogeneous historical narrative of Israeli literature with a diversity of voices a multiplicity of origins and a wide range of different perspectives In doing so it will provoke researchers in a wide range of cultural fields to look at the rich traditions that underlie it in new and fresh ways

Aussie Impasse Kevin Johnson,2019-02-23 This is the third book of a trilogy The first was Aussie Pilot the second Aussie Knowhow and now the final book of the series Aussie Impasse All books are pure fantasy and include some spectacular deductions magic science fiction and illusionary events that many young Australian boys dreamed of well past the time they reached maturity The merged happenings in most instances were created by other writers films or television exposures and were strung together to form the fictitious exciting life of a hero and his friends As previously stated the book has been growing in the writer s head since he was an adolescent and over time has been progressively added to regurgitated and reinvented As the writer discovered them they became merged until now where it would seem they are no longer recognizable The third book of the series is the end of the need to complete the story and hopefully to conclude an enjoyable reading experience a mental escape perhaps even a pleasing fantasy for the patient and forgiving readers that inexplicably discovered this work It is my sincere hope that when you all close the last page you will have a pleasant smile on the face and will quietly say That was a satisfying read I quite enjoyed the entire journey Again my heartfelt thanks to my wife Judy my children Michelle Vanessa and David and their children Matthew Benjamin Finn Aislinn Caelan Neve and Taya for providing the encouragement support and love that I needed so much to make me finish what I just had to start So book 3 begins Reflected Glory Carney Lake,1994-04-21 Carney Lake served for six years in a Royal Marines Commando Unit and in this book tells his story the names of those men involved have been changed to protect their identities but the events

happened as described The result is arguably as vivid and accurate a depiction of Britain's fighting men as has ever appeared in print What we can see from the television screen of war and terrorism leaves us with no doubts as to the reality of modern warfare but what it can't share with us is the feelings of the personalities on the ground as the bullets fly There are nail biting descriptions of patrols on the streets of Belfast of facing an invading army on British sovereign territory in Cyprus and the strain of border duty in South Armagh where every silent rural ditch may prove an explosive and bloody grave An unputdownable view of what it takes to be a member of the Royal Marines of the sacrifices to do the job well The Miracle Girl Andrew Roe,2016-03-01 Perhaps the first miracle was that she lived The crowds keep coming They arrive all with their reasons all with their doubts and certainties and everything in between More and more every day drawn by rumor and whisper and desperate wish They come to Shaker Street to see eight year old Anabelle Vincent who lies in a coma like state unable to move or speak They come because a visitor experienced what seemed like a miracle and believed it happened because of Anabelle Word spreads There are more visitors more supposed miracles more stories on TV and the Internet But is this the divine at work or something else Poems and Short Stories Vol.1 Casey Mensing,2019-07-17 A collection of poems and short stories detailing love the past and present tossed together in the haunts of old Los Angeles
