Feel Freddie Spencer,2017-04-20 Feel is the story of how a small time boy from humble beginnings in Louisiana rose to the pantheon of greats to win the 500cc and 250cc GP Championship in the same year an historic achievement over three decades ago which has never been repeated Growing up at the time of the assassination of Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Freddie judged by feel not by colour Blind to prejudice and discrimination he formed dynamic connections with people and events but only years later during his racing afterlife could Freddie come to understand the true power of the things he learned Spencer is an articulate and compassionate guide as he describes the thrill and horror of racing in an era when death was a perennial threat He recalls in pin sharp detail the frenetic high octane racing duels with the King Kenny Roberts but also describes a parallel internal journey as he struggled to make sense of it all Driven by a search for the personal fulfilment that comes through finding your purpose Freddie s story is a universal one In its message of hope Feel transcends its genre to offer a story for everyone Part thriller part philosophical self exploration it is a remarkably insightful account of what it is like to have it all but wonder why For the first time I will talk about the traumas of my childhood the contrast between the leaf fire burns the mistrust and discomfort and the peace and purpose I felt when riding my bike I didn t tell my parents about something that happened to me Why I felt ashamed but when I rode I felt connected to everything and the pain in my hand and heart would go away It gave me the feeling of hope
