Linguistic tools for teachers of English: towards a bilingual education Ramiro Durán Martínez, Sonsoles Sánchez-Reyes Peñamaría, 2010 Transforming School Systems Through Assessment, Technology, and Non-Traditional Learning Methods Yünkül, Eyup, Güneş, Ahmet Melih, 2024-08-26 In today s rapidly changing education landscape integrating assessment technology and non traditional learning methods is essential for fostering student success Data driven assessments allow educators to tailor their strategies to meet each student s unique needs while advanced technologies enhance accessibility and engagement Non traditional methods promote critical thinking and real world problem solving skills By implementing these innovative approaches education can be transformed for a more inclusive future for all students Transforming School Systems Through Assessment Technology and Non Traditional Learning Methods explores these pivotal changes providing a comprehensive understanding of how they are reshaping school systems globally This book gathers insights research and practical applications that highlight the transformative power of these elements in creating more effective inclusive and engaging learning environments Covering topics such as change management learning through play and teacher leadership this book is an excellent resource for educators school administrators researchers academicians policy makers education consultants technology developers edtech developers graduate students and preservice teachers Resources in Education , 2001 Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom, 1992-1995 National Foundation For Educational Research, 1995 This latest volume of the Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom lists all the major research projects being undertaken in Britain during the latter months of 1992 the whole of 1993 and 1994 and the early months of 1995 Each entry provides names and addresses of the researchers a detailed abstract the source and amount of the grant where applicable the length of the project and details of published material about the research Understanding Assessment David Lambert, David Lines, 2013-04-15 This is the first title in this new series which is aimed principally at secondary PGCE and BAEd students and school and HEI based tutors Each book provides a digest of the central issues around a particular topic or issues grounded in or supported by examples of good practice with suggestions for further reading study and investigation The books are not intended as how to books but rather as books which will help students and teachers to explore and understand critical theoretical issues in ways that are challenging that invite critical reappraisals of taken for granted practices and perceptions and that provide appropriate links between theory and practice Issues related to equal opportunities and special needs are included in each separate volume There are boxes of questions think abouts further reading and bulleted summary lists for the reader This book is written specifically for teachers in training which will clarify the big picture of monitoring and assessment and makes the crucial distinctions in this large and still taken for granted field The authors have written widely on assessment matters and have also worked in various capacities for the QCA and its former manifestations They are also engaged in initial teacher education and so know the level and market extremely well

Developing Teachers' Assessment Literacy Kim Koh, Cecille DePass, Sean Steel, 2019-07-29

Since the turn of the 21st century developing teachers assessment literacy has been recognized as one of the key levers for improving instructional practice and student learning in light of the education reforms worldwide A substantial body of literature is focused on teachers assessment literacy or teachers capacity in assessment and teachers continuing professional development in assessment As we approach the third decade of the 21st century developing teachers assessment literacy needs to be more responsive to the need of both preservice and inservice teachers who come from linguistically and culturally diverse backgrounds The authors concur that both preservice and inservice teachers in today's complex educational contexts require a deeper level of understanding of assessment Additionally teachers are highly encouraged to appreciate the history of educational assessment in different sociocultural and political contexts as well as to know how to determine the merits of a range of assessment practices best suited for their lesson planning and classroom teaching In this book the authors discuss significant aspects of developing teachers assessment literacy in different sociocultural and political contexts Based on their respective educational backgrounds academic experiences and applied fields of study each of the authors presents a critical response to the topic of assessment Their accounts represent the complexity of the subject through a breadth and range of content and perspectives By expanding the terms of reference regarding assessment the authors have developed a book with a far richer panorama on assessment as a springboard for inquiry
