

Guidelines for Leaving Kids HOME ALONE

AGE APPROPRIATE:

7 & under	Should not be left alone for any period of time
8-10 years old	Should not be left alone for more than 1½ hours & only during daylight and early evening hours.
11-12 years old	May be left alone for up to 3 hours but not late at night.
13-15 years old	May be left unsupervised, but not overnight.
16-17 years old	May be left unsupervised (in some cases, for up to two consecutive overnight periods).

SAFETY TIPS:

- Things to memorize: Full name, address, telephone number.
- Post an emergency list - local, long distance numbers to call in case of emergency.
- Let neighbors know that your child may be home alone.
- Call the child several times while you are away.
- Teach your child how to lock windows and doors.
- Tell your child not to go into other people's homes (neighbors included) without your permission.
- Designate a safe house to run to if the child feels like he/she is in danger.
- Teach children kitchen safety and what is/is not okay when you are not at home with them.

Teaching Your Child To Be Home Alone

Joanne Calderwood

Teaching Your Child To Be Home Alone:

Teaching Your Child to Be Home Alone Earl A. Grollman, Gerri L. Sweder, 1998-05-26 An estimated eight to 10 million American children are latchkey kids who after the school day return to an empty house or apartment and take care of themselves until their parents get home from work This helpful book is written for members of such families to read together

Jet, 2000-12-04 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Writing-to-learn Gail P.

Poirrier, 1997 What do students learn How do they learn Can they express themselves in writing This book helps educators resolve these questions and more Here are strategies to enhance critical thinking communication professional growth research and classroom skills This book is a valuable aide for scholars educators and clinicians in nursing health science and other disciplines The Time Bind Arlie Russell Hochschild, 2001-04-01 The national bestseller that put work family balance in the headlines and on the White House agenda with a new introduction by the author When The Time Bind was first published in 1997 it was hailed as the decade s most influential study of our work family crisis In the short time since the crisis has only become more acute Arlie Russell Hochschild bestselling author of The Second Shift spent three summers at a Fortune 500 company interviewing top executives secretaries factory hands and others What she found was startling Though every mother and nearly every father said family comes first few of these working parents questioned their long hours or took the company up on chances for flextime paternity leave or other family friendly policies Why not It seems the roles of home and work had reversed work was offering stimulation guidance and a sense of belonging while home had become the place in which there was too much to do in too little time Today Hochschild s findings are more relevant than ever As she shows in her new introduction the borders between family and work have become even more permeable With the Internet extending working hours at home and offices offering domestic enticements free snacks soft music to keep employees later at their jobs The Time Bind stands as an increasingly important warning about the way we live and work Help I'm Raising

My Children Alone T.D. Jakes, 2011-10-03 The loss of a spouse through death divorce or even abandonment can leave a mom or dad feeling uncertain about how to pull the family together and raise spiritually healthy children In this best selling book Bishop T D Jakes the father of five children offers hope encouragement and biblical advice for single parents and for those who feel as if they are single Using discussion questions interactive parent child activities and prayers at the end of each chapter Jakes helps you learn how to embrace your family s future and let go of your painful past as you reflect on topics including Learn how to accept unexpected changes Know that past failure does not prevent future success Learn how to love imperfect people Turn pain into power Know that it is OK to ask for help The Cries of Victims and Bullies Sally Ragoo MBA BA (Hons), 2014-05-22 The Cries of Victims and Bullies Sally Ragoo MBA BA Hons A few words about the author I have read books from other writers who engage in the topic of bullying many times there are too many examples of bullying incidents and not enough direct advice on how to treat the problem I appreciate the advice Sally has given and I intend to share it with all the parents that I know Sally's book gives a new dimension to the problem of bullying as she does not wage war on all bullies. She has written this book from her heart and from the bosom of a woman with maternal instincts. Claire Guischard Thompson. Sally has done excellent research on this topic and has weaved well researched facts about bullying to her own experiences. She maintains a connected flow in each area and tugs at our hearts to help and heal both victims and bullies alike. The book is well written and divided into segments to address all parties. I have been a teacher for over thirty seven years and I anticipate this book will help thousands of readers. I am eagerly looking forward to reading other books that Sally plans to publish soon. Sarah Joseph Gooding, teacher in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. Practical Tips for Parenting Inez V. Harrison, 2014-02-06. Home is the place where love begins where we find agreement and purpose and where we build character. Our children learn about their world through watching and imitating us. What we give them passes from generation to generation. By the time you finish this book you will have keys to establish and practice positive experiences within your home, keys for the ever increasing flow of love in your home, keys for enhancing good self esteem in your children, keys for expressing feelings responsibly, keys for fostering conversation with your family, keys for listening well, keys for smoothing out the bumps in family life and keys for family cooperation, responsibility, respect, rules and family meetings.

The Self-Propelled Advantage Joanne Calderwood, 2012-10-01. A home education expert and mother of eight shares her experiences and insights into harnessing a child's natural desire to learn. Joanne Calderwood has been a popular magazine columnist for several years and has become a popular speaker at home education conferences across the country. Her self propelled philosophy of education has transformed lives across the nation and around the world. In The Self Propelled Advantage Calderwood shares her wisdom, experience and philosophy of education and parenting as borne out in the lives of her own exceptional children. Informative and inspiring, The Self Propelled Advantage is for any parent who places a high value on their children's education. Detailing her methods for raising inquisitive, diligent, self motivated children, Calderwood also shares valuable information on preparing for college entrance exams like the SAT and ACT. Having taught one SAT perfect scorer, one near perfect scorer and four students who have gone to college on full academic scholarships, Calderwood has proven how successful her methods can be.

Raising Gifted Kids Barbara Schave Klein, 2007. Raising an extremely bright child, quick, curious, sensitive and introspective is a daunting challenge. Parents need insight into their own motivations as well as those of their children and the courage and ability to make tough decisions about their child's development. Raising Gifted Kids will help parents understand and cope with the obstacles they face in raising a gifted child and help them make the best choices for their son's or daughter's growth and happiness.
