R. Levesque, 2003 Adolescents live in a changing world Those changes come in the readily recognisable form of pressing familial educational economic informational cultural and global challenges We have yet to see how these transformations will impact adolescents personal relationships and their place in society We do know however that current approaches to the socialisation of adolescents raise important concerns as parents and social institutions respond to challenges This book explores these changes and challenges by examining the extent to which we may foster adolescent development in ways that respect and foster adolescents basic rights to relationships they deem appropriate fulfilling and worthy of protection It also explores those changes and rights from a view that acknowledges the need to respect the rights of others that recognises that adolescents rights are not for them alone Contents Preface The Legal Foundations of Adolescents Education The Place and Nature of Sexuality Education in Society Revisiting the Traditional Rationale for Sexuality Education Pregnancy Developmental Timing and its Legal Responses Combating
