Teaching With Power Shared Decision Making And Classroom Practice:

Teaching with Power Carol J. Reed, 2000 Discusses the issues involved in teachers gaining more input into the educational process

The Power of Protocols Joseph P. McDonald, Nancy Mohr, Alan Dichter, Elizabeth C. McDonald, 2015-04-26 The use of protocols has spread from conferences and workshops to everyday school and university settings Featuring seven protocols this teaching and professional development tool is useful for those working with collaborative groups of teachers on everything from school improvement to curriculum development to teacher education at all levels

The Competent Classroom Allison Zmuda, 2001-01-01 Describes the cross disciplinary journey of two high school teachers trying to align curriculum assessment and performance standards in their classrooms With a focus on the importance of constantly inspiring students the authors troubleshoot issues surrounding content standards instructional objectives and the aims of curriculum

The Teaching Career John Goodlad, Timothy McMannon, 2014-04-15 Featuring a group of expert contributors this book details the complexities of not only preparing teachers for the classroom but also helping them to succeed in the profession itself Addressing topics of vital importance to new and veteran teachers this authoritative volume Explains how to build a strong sense of self to help teachers weather the inevitable storms they face in the field such as state mandates district directives and parental pressures Investigates highly regarded programs for new teachers analyzing orientations seminars and mentorship programs Discusses how to bring together stakeholders to renew teacher preparation induction and professional development Addresses the crucial role of teacher unions and how they are helping to make teaching a more attractive career And much much more Contributors Richard E Barnes Sheldon Berman Sharon Feiman Nemser Thomas Gillett John I Goodlad Paul E Heckman Daniel Katz Corinne Mantle Bromley Nancy Jean Sahling Roger Soder Adam Urbanski Patricia A Wasley Betty Lou Whitford Richard Wisniewski These thoughtful and provocative essays contribute to our understanding of ways to renew and sustain good teaching Anyone interested in matters of teacher induction professional development college school partnerships and the role of higher education in teacher development will find these essays a necessary read David G Imig President and CEO American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education John Goodlad and Timothy McMannon have captured many of the issues state board members are grappling with as they pursue the goal to have a highly qualified teacher in every classroom every day As states track and modify policies on program approval licensure recruitment and retention this work will help to inform their deliberations Brenda Welburn Executive Director National Association of State Boards of Education

The Networked Teacher Kira J. Baker-Doyle, 2011 New teachers need support from their peers and mentors to locate resources information new ideas emotional support and inspiration This timely book explains the research and theory behind social networks face to face and online describes what effective social networking for educators looks like reveals common obstacles that new teachers face in establishing support networks and offers valuable practical advice The author follows the stories of four first year teachers illustrating the significant impact that social support networks can have on teachers' lives and challenging common misconceptions of professional support. This book offers action guides to help teachers become intentional networkers including a companion website with tools for networking and collaboration. This is a must-have resource for pre and in-service teachers. Book Features: Research-based frameworks on teachers' social networks and professional support; Suggestions for mentors, teacher educators, and school administrators on how to help new teachers to effectively develop their social networks; A companion website that will offer discussion forums, resources, and networking tools. Dr. Baker Doyle's book adds an interesting and timely facet: the role of social networks to the always-important discussions about how new teachers can excel in their work. Her research will be of value to those who do professional development with educators and to practitioners alike. Susan Fuhrman, President of Teachers College, Columbia University and the National Academy of Education. Without question, this book is a major contribution to the public and academic conversation on school reform and teacher development. But more importantly, it is destined to improve the professional life of any teacher that reads it. Marc Lamont Hill, Teachers College, Columbia University. The Comprehensive High School Today Floyd M. Hammack, 2004. Hammack has gathered a distinguished group to assess current reform efforts in their sociological and historical context, taking into account the vision of James B. Conant, the major proponent of the comprehensive high schools. Contributors are Mary Erina Driscoll, Joseph P. McDonald, Jeannie Oakes, John L. Rury, Roger Shouse, Amy Stuart Wells. Teachers Caught in the Action Ann Lieberman, Lynne Miller, 2001-04-27. Because what we do in staff development can best be understood in terms of contexts, strategies, and structures, the remainder of the book features distinguished educators who write from their own unique experiential and theoretical stances. Jacqueline Ancess describes how teachers in New York City secondary schools increase their own learning while improving student outcomes. Milbrey W. McLaughlin and Joel Zarrow demonstrate how teachers learn to use data to improve their practice and meet educational standards. Lynne Miller presents a case study of a long-lived school-university partnership. Beverly Falk recounts stories of teachers working together to develop performance assessments to understand their students' learning, to re-think their curriculum, and much more. Laura Stokes analyzes a school that successfully uses inquiry groups. There are further contributions, including some from novice teachers by Anna Richert Ershler, Ann Lieberman, Diane Wood, Sarah Warshawer Freedman, and Joseph P. McDonald. These powerful exemplars from practice provide a much-needed overview of what matters and what really works in professional development today. Looking Together at Student Work, Third Edition Tina Blythe, David Allen, Barbara Schieffelin Powell, 2015-04-17. This bestseller provides teachers and administrators with strategies for examining and discussing student work such as essays, math problems, projects, artwork, and more. New for the Third Edition: The Microlab Protocol, a relatively quick and easy way to introduce groups to protocol-guided conversation; a new case focused on understanding the Common Core; and more detailed notes and strategies for facilitators. Tina Blythe develops and facilitates online professional development courses for

Harvard Project Zero and consults for schools districts and organizations both nationally and internationally David Allen is an assistant professor at the College of Staten Island City University of New York Barbara Schieffelin Powell is a national and international educational consultant in curriculum development teacher education and evaluation Mobilizing Citizens for Better Schools Robert F. Sexton, 2004-03-20 Tired of the complacent attitudes Kentucky politicians showed toward education the Prichard Committee formed as an organization to galvanize the citizens of Kentucky to attack the state's historic educational deficits The committee's campaigning helped prepare the way for the passage of the Kentucky Education Reform Act in 1990 and continues to work for school reform today Based on his wealth of experience and success with the Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence Sexton provides invaluable guidance for citizens of all states who are interested in implementing school reform Leading Educational Change Helen Janc Malone, 2015-04-28 You won't find a better book on whole system change that covers so much ground in such an accessible form than Leading Educational Change From the Foreword by Michael Fullan Professor Emeritus OISE University of Toronto This book tackles critical issues and conundrums about how to create productive educational systems by a group of exceptionally knowledgeable thought leaders from the U S and around the world Both policymakers and practitioners will benefit from these valuable insights Linda Darling Hammond Charles E Ducommun Professor of Education at Stanford University author of The Flat World and Education A well edited and fascinating anthology with a wide variety of prescriptions from the powerful to the improbable Sir Michael Barber Chief Education Advisor Pearson This book provides exactly what we need at this moment in the education enterprise clear eyed and far reaching analyses from our brightest minds on the problems and potential solutions to delivering better educators and education amid a vastly changing globally competitive and interconnected 21st century Gregory A Patterson Managing Editor Phi Delta Kappan Magazine This collection features original essays from international superstars in the field of educational change Each think piece draws on the latest knowledge from research policy and practice to provide important insights for creating systemic meaningful reform The authors directly address contemporary challenges misconceptions and failed strategies while also offering solutions ideas and guiding questions for examination Unique in its breadth of ideas and diversity of voices Leading Educational Change is must reading for education decision makers on all levels frontline practitioners and everyone involved with children and adolescent learning Together with the online companion Instructor's Guide this is also a perfect text for educational leadership and policy courses Contributors Mel Ainscow Stephen E Anderson Rukmini Banerji Gabriel C mara Maria Helena Guimar es de Castro Madhav Chavan Amanda Datnow Sherry L Deckman Lorna Earl Patrick Griffin Silvina Gvirtz Andy Hargreaves Alma Harris Jonathan D Jansen Elena Lenskaya Ann Lieberman Helen Janc Malone Barry McGaw Pak Tee Ng Pasi Sahlberg Andreas Schleicher Dennis Shirley James P Spillane Louise Stoll Esteban Torre Yong Zhao Helen Janc Malone Ed D is an educational researcher dedicated to connecting research policy and practice in support of student learning and positive development Her work centers on educational change whole system
