Teaching Writing As A Second Language:

Teaching Writing as a Second Language Alice Horning, 1986-09-26 Classrooms filled with glassy eyed students provide an experiential base for Alice S Horning's new comprehensive theory about basic writers Horning explores the theory of writing acquisition in detail Her examination of spoken and written language and redundancy give a theoretical base to her argument that academic discourse is a separate linguistic system characterized by particular psycholinguistic features She proposes that basic writers learn to write as other learners master a second language because for them academic written English is a whole new language She explores the many connections to be found in second language acquisition research to the teaching and learning of writing and gives special attention to the interlanguage hypothesis pidginization theory and the Monitor theory She also addresses the role of affective factors feelings attitudes emotions and motivation in the success or failure of writing students

Teaching Academic Writing Brian Paltridge, 2009 Chapters address a full range of critical topics including the context and process of academic writing needs analysis teaching approaches the interrelationship between writing and vocabulary intercultural perspectives feedback and assessment Each chapter includes Classroom Implications tasks and techniques for teaching and some possible exercises to use with students Chapters begin with thought provoking questions and end with a section designed to help users consider their own beliefs and classroom practices Back cover

Writing Myths Joy M. Reid, Keith S. Folse, 2008 This volume was conceived as a best practices resource for writing teachers in the way that Vocabulary Myths by Keith S Folse is one for reading and vocabulary teachers It was written to help ensure that writing teachers are not perpetuating the myths of teaching writing Each author is a practicing teacher who selected his or her myth based on classroom experience and expertise Both the research and pedagogy in this book are based on the newest research in for example teacher preparation EAP and ESP and corpus linguistics The myths discussed in this book are Teaching vocabulary is not the writing teacher's job Keith S Folse Teaching citation is someone else's job Cynthia M Schuemann Where grammar is concerned one size fits all Pat Byrd and John Bunting Academic writing should be assertive and certain Ken Hyland Students must learn to correct all their writing errors Dana Ferris Corpus based research is too complicated to be useful for writing teachers Susan Conrad Academic writing courses should focus on paragraph and essay development Sharon Cavausgil International and U S resident ESL writers cannot be taught in the same class Paul Kei Matsuda The book concludes with a discussion of students myths about academic writing and teaching written by Joy Reid

Controversies in Second Language Writing Christine Pearson Casanave, 2007 Controversies in Second Language Writing is not a how to book but one that focuses on how teachers in L2 writing can be helped to make reasoned decisions by understanding some of the key issues and conflicting opinions about L2 writing research and pedagogy This book will assist teachers in making informed decisions about teaching writing in the ESL classroom To counteract some of the debates Casanave explores the different sides of the arguments and provides examples of how other teachers have dealt with these issues The book presents novice and seasoned teachers with thought provoking issues and questions to consider when determining and reflecting on their own teaching strategies and criteria Topics discussed include contrastive rhetoric product vs process fluency and accuracy assessment of student work audience plagiarism politics and ideology Second Language Writing Ken Hyland,2003-10-27 Table of contents TEACHING WRITING IN SECOND AND FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLASSROOMS Jessica Williams,2005 Provides research based information and practical advice to instructors who teach writing to second and foreign language learners This book is suitable for a basic methods course or a course on second or foreign language writing It is also useful as a preparation course for ESL or foreign language teaching assistants Teaching Writing to Second Language Learners Riaz Hassan,Professor of Sociology Riaz Hassan, Dr,2009-06 A treatise on factors that need to be identified and addressed in helping adult South Asian students to enhance their confidence and improve their performance in writing This is an area of increasing importance as higher education in these countries becomes more and more research oriented Weaknesses in language exist and persist the unhappy legacy of poor educational policies miniscule budgets and half hearted implementation over the years Remediation is said to be the most difficult and least successful undertaking in language teaching but it might be possible to improve approaches and results by looking at some of the facts and factors of the situation Expertise in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela,Diane D. Belcher,2024-11-25 Despite growing interest in L2 writing teachers there is a dearth of published works that specifically delve into the nuances of the development of L2 writing teacher expertise Informed by relevant foundational theory and empirical research this book addresses this crucial gap in the understanding of expertise in L2 writing instruction This book offers a holistic analysis of L2 writing instruction serving as a valuable resource for those involved in the development of L2 writing teacher educators as well as novice teachers striving to hone their skills in teaching L2 writing It draws from a wide array of international perspectives on the conceptualization of L2 writing teacher expertise and research in this domain Significantly it is the first comprehensive work that places expertise in L2 writing instruction at the forefront It will interest scholars in the disciplines of foreign and second language education as well as postgraduate students and aspiring teachers Teaching Creative Writing to Second Language Learners Ryan Thorpe,2021-12-20 This timely and accessible book offers engaging guidance to teachers of second language students on teaching creative writing in their classrooms Creative writing is a tool that can inspire second language learners to write more play with language and enjoy and improve not only their writing but also their speaking listening and reading skills Addressing the expectations and perceptions of writing in another language Thorpe demonstrates how to foster successful creative writing environments and teach and assess creative writing in a way that is tailored to the distinct needs of non native speakers Covering key topics such as cultural storytelling voice genre and digital composition assessment and more Thorpe shares successful creative writing instructional practices informed by current research in creative writing and second language education Each chapter includes insights advice and student examples that can help new teachers take their first steps in more reflective second language creative writing classroom An invaluable resource for instructors of non native students and an ideal text for pre service teachers in courses in TESOL writing instruction and applied linguistics this book invites you to use creative writing not only as a successful method for teaching L2 writing but also as a way to improve student motivation and output for more effective language learning

Connecting Reading & Writing in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela, 2004-08-20 Academic writing often requires students to incorporate material from outside sources like statistics ideas quotations paraphrases into their own written texts a particular obstacle for students who lack strong reading skills In Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction Alan Hirvela contends that second language writing students should be considered as readers first and advocates the integration of reading and writing instruction with a survey of theory research and pedagogy in the subject area Although the integrated reading writing model has gained popularity in recent years many teachers have little more than an intuitive sense of the connections between these skills As part of the popular Michigan Series on Teaching Multilingual Writers Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction will provide invaluable background knowledge on this issue to ESL teachers in training as well as teachers who are already practicing
