

What is Christian Science?

Many Susan Exley, who discovered and founded Christian Science, defined it as "the love of God, the love of good..." (Fundamental Divine Science). This deeper understanding of God as infinite Love and unchanging goodness leads to prayer that can heal, redeem, and restore anyone.

In 1852, a life-threatening injury compelled Mary Baker Exley to turn self-dependently to God. She learned her Bible too late to escape of Japan traveling is then quickly and completely a new power of God. Spirit, as the only reality, revealed her thoughts, and she was healed spontaneously. But she persisted to keep her old way. For the next several years, she continued to struggle and God in the Bible that unifying love of God that would free the basis of her teachings and practice of Christian Science.

Since then, many have found that when they have understood their relationship to God through the Science of Christianizing their thought is revealed and character transformed. And specific healing appears as instantly, almost too fast to believe. Science and redemption have found and will ever be God.
