Goodnow, Haci Akman, 2008-09 Museums across the world are facing the task of capturing reflecting and representing the notion of complex identities personal religious and ethnic Narratives of national allegiances are being slowly replaced and supplemented by indigenous and minority voices providing a more complex understanding of diversity especially where intangible heritage is called on as a witness The approach taken by Scandinavian museums in response to this challenge highlights the hybrid forms of cultural diversity and how they interrelate and work together By bringing together debates and discussions of identity and diversity this volume offers a particular insight into a broad geographic region and its diverse people from the Sami and the limit to new migrants It also presents a set of historical views on the formation of national museums and their contested perceptions of identity Whilst developing new arguments and furthering an ongoing debate it offers museum curators possible ways forward
