Sounding The Territory:

Sounding the Territory Laurel Goldman, 1983-02-01 Sounding Places Karolina Doughty, Michelle Duffy, Theresa Harada, 2019 This edited collection examines the more than representational registers of sound It asks how sound comes to be a meaningful ingredient in the microgeographies of place making through the workings of affect emotion and atmosphere how sound contributes to shaping a variety of embodied and spatially situated experiences and how such aspects can be harnessed methodologically These topics contribute to broader debates on the relations between representation and the non or more than representational that are taking place across the social sciences and humanities in the wake of the cultural turn More specifically the book contributes to the fertile theoretical intersections of sound affect emotion and atmosphere The ^AOxford Handbook of Sound and Imagination, Volume 1 Mark Grimshaw-Aagaard, Mads Walther-Hansen, Martin Knakkegaard, 2019-07-26 In this two volume Handbook contributors address the tendency to discuss musical imagination through terms like compositional creativity or performance technique correcting the current bias towards visual imagination to instead highlight the many forms of sonic and musical imagination The Oxford Handbook of Sound and Imagination Mark Grimshaw, Mark Grimshaw-Aagaard, Mads Hansen, Martin Knakkegaard, 2019 In this two volume Handbook contributors address the tendency to discuss musical imagination through terms like compositional creativity or performance technique correcting the current bias towards visual imagination to instead highlight the many forms of sonic and musical imagination Listening to War J. Martin Daughtry, 2015 A landmark work within the study of conflict sound studies and ethnomusicology Listening to War offers a broad theorization of sound violence music listening and place while also providing a discrete window into the lives of individual Iraqis and Americans struggling to orient themselves within the fog of war The Congressional Globe United States. Congress, 1838 Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1960 Rethinking Darkness Nick Dunn, Tim Edensor, 2020-10-28 This book examines the concept of darkness through a range of cultures histories practices and experiences It engages with darkness beyond its binary positioning against light to advance a critical understanding of the ways in which darkness can be experienced practised and conceptualised Humans have fundamental relationships with light and dark that shape their regular social patterns and rhythms enabling them to make sense of the world This book throws light on the neglect of these social patterns to emphasize how the diverse values meanings and influences of darkness have been rarely considered It also examines the history of our relationship with the dark and highlights how normative attitudes towards it have emerged while also emphasising its cultural complexity by considering a contemporary range of alternative experiences and practices Challenging notions of darkness as negative as the antithesis of illumination and enlightenment this book explores the rich potential of darkness to stimulate our senses and deepen our understandings of different spaces cultural experiences and creative engagements Offering a rich exploration of an emergent field of study across the social sciences and humanities this book will be useful for academics and students of
