Sounds English

Charles Eichhorn

Sounds English:

Sounds English Nabeel Zuberi, 2001 Zuberi looks at how the sounds images and lyrics of English popular music generate and critique ideas of national belonging recasting the social and even the physical landscapes of cities like Manchester and London The Smiths and Morrissey play on romanticized notions of the white English working class while the Pet Shop Boys map a queer urban Britain in the AIDS era The techno culture of raves and dance clubs incorporates both an anti institutional do it yourself politics and emergent leisure practices while the potent mix of technology and creativity in British black music includes local conditions as well as a sense of global diaspora British Asian musicians drawing on Afrodiasporic and South Asian traditions seek a sense of place in Britain as commercial interests try to pin down an image of them to market Sounds English shows how popular music complicates cherished notions of Englishness as it activates cultural outsiders and taps into a sense of not belonging BOOK JACKET

Sounds English J. D. O'Connor, Clare Fletcher, 1989 Sounds English consists of a coursebook which is available separately and this set of three cassettes It aims to train students to pronounce effectively including the accurate production of individual sounds as well as stress and intonation Each unit starts with intensive practice in hearing and saying particular sounds then moves on to real life contexts where stress intonation and sounds are all involved The Sounds of English and Italian Frederick Browning Agard, Robert J. Di Pietro, 1965

The Phonemes of English A. Cohen, 2012-12-06 I gladly take this opportunity to convey my heartfelt thanks to those who have guided me on my way as an undergraduate and who have enabled me through their teachings and friendly advice to proceed to preparing for this doctorate thesis I should like first of all to thank Prof C L Wrenn M A now of Pembroke College Oxford who has always been extremely helpful to me and who was generous enough to admit me to the Honours English Course at King s College University of London After moving to Oxford he still found time to show interest in my progress and on more than one occasion helped me with his wise counsels I am also extremely grateful to his successor at King s College Prof G Bullough M A who likewise helped me whenever he could I feel greatly indebted to Prof D Jones M A Dr Phil who at the time was Professor of Phonetics at University College London and from whose lectures and methods of expression I greatly benefited I am particularly thankful for the kindness shown to me by the staffs of the English department of King s College and of the Phonetics department of University College for the excellent tuition I received from them and for making me feel completely at home among my English fellow students I am happy to acknowledge the generosity with which Prof Dr P N U
