The Source; a Novel, by James A. Michener James Albert Michener, 1965      The Art of Movies Nicolae Sfetcu, 2014-05-06

Movie is considered to be an important art form films entertain educate enlighten and inspire audiences Film is a term that encompasses motion pictures as individual projects as well as in metonymy the field in general The origin of the name comes from the fact that photographic film also called filmstock has historically been the primary medium for recording and displaying motion pictures Many other terms exist motion pictures or just pictures or picture the silver screen photoplays the cinema picture shows flicks and commonly movies      The Novel's Seductions Karyna Szmurlo, 1999 The distinctive place of Stael's novel in literature and its disseminative powers are documented in Part III Genie at Large From Corilla Olimpica to Marguerite Yourcenar the critics depict affiliations among female writers striving for public recognition and explore the ideological textual borrowings among Corinne and other classic works      The Curse of Frankenstein Marcus K. Harmes, 2015-06-30 Critics abhorred it audiences loved it and Hammer executives were thrilled with the box office returns The Curse of Frankenstein was big business The 1957 film is the first to bring together in a horror movie the unholy two Christopher Lee and Peter Cushing together with the Hammer company and director Terence Fisher combinations now legendary among horror fans In his Devil's Advocate Marcus Harmes goes back to where the Hammer horror production started looking at the film from a variety of perspectives as a loose literary adaptation of Mary Shelley's novel as a film that had for legal reasons to avoid adapting from James Whale's 1931 film for Universal Pictures and as one which found immediate sources of inspiration in the Gainsborough bodice rippers of the 1940s and the poverty row horrors of the 1950s Later Hammer horrors may have consolidated the reputation of the company and the stars but these works had their starting point in the creative and commercial choices made by the team behind The Curse of Frankenstein In the film sparks fly new life is created and horrors unleashed but the film itself was a jolt to 1950s cinema going that has never been entirely surpassed      Andrew Davies Sarah Cardwell, 2005-07-22 Andrew Davies is the creator of the British TV programs Pride and Prejudice Othello and The Way We Live Now Although best known for his adaptations of the work of writers such as Jane Austen and George Eliot he has written numerous original drama series single plays films stage plays and books This volume offers a critical appraisal of Davies's work and assesses his contribution to British television      Japanese Horror Cinema and Deleuze Rachel Elizabeth Barraclough, 2022-01-13 Using theories of national transnational and world cinema and genre theories and psychoanalysis as the basis of its argument Japanese Horror Cinema and Deleuze argues that these understandings of Japanese horror films can be extended in new ways through the philosophy of Deleuze In particular the complexities and nuances of how films like Ju On The Grudge 2002 Audition 1999 and Kairo 2001 and beyond form dynamic transformative global networks between industries directors and audiences can be considered Furthermore understandings of how key horror tropes and motifs apply to these films and others more broadly such as the idea of the monstrous feminine can be transformed allowing these models to become more flexible

Classical Vertigo Mark William Padilla, 2024-03-18 Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo has dazzled and challenged audiences with its unique aesthetic design and startling plot devices since its release in 1958 In Classical Vertigo Mythic Shapes and Contemporary Influences in Hitchcock's Film Mark William Padilla analyzes antecedents including 1 the film's source novel Entre les morts Among the Dead 2 the earlier symbolist novel Rodenbach's Bruges la morte and 3 the first draft screenplay of Maxwell Anderson a prominent Broadway dramatist and Hollywood scenarist from the 1920s to the 1950s The presence of Vertigo amid these texts reveals and clarifies how themes from Greco Roman antiquity emerge in Hitchcock's project Padilla analyzes narrative figures such as Prometheus and Pandora Persephone and Hades and Pygmalion and Galatea as well as themes like the dark plots of Greek tragedy to reveal how Hitchcock used allusive form to construct an emotionally powerful experience with an often minimalist script This analysis demonstrates that Vertigo is a multifaceted work of intertextuality with artistic and cultural roots extending into antiquity itself

Kiss the Blood Off My Hands Robert Miklitsch, 2014-09-15 Consider the usual view of film noir endless rainy nights populated by down at the heel boxers writers and private eyes stumbling toward inescapable doom while stalked by crooked cops and cheating wives in a neon lit urban jungle But a new generation of writers is pushing aside the fog of cigarette smoke surrounding classic noir scholarship In Kiss the Blood Off My Hands On Classic Film Noir Robert Miklitsch curates a bold collection of essays that reassesses the genre's iconic style history and themes Contributors analyze the oft overlooked female detective and little examined aspects of filmmaking like love songs and radio aesthetics discuss the significance of the producer and women's pulp fiction and investigate topics as disparate as Disney noir and the Fifties heist film B movie back projection and blacklisted British directors At the same time the writers collective reconsideration shows the impact of race and gender history and sexuality technology and transnationality on the genre As bracing as a stiff drink Kiss the Blood Off My Hands writes the future of noir scholarship in lipstick and chalk lines for film fans and scholars alike Contributors Krin Gabbard Philippa Gates Julie Grossman Robert Miklitsch Robert Murphy Mark Osteen Vivian Sobchack Andrew Spicer J P Telotte and Neil Verma

Grand Challenges in Marine Biotechnology Pabulo H. Rampelotto, Antonio Trincone, 2018-05-15 This book serves as essential reading for research scientists and biotechnologists from both academia and industry working in marine biotechnology and related disciplines The book discusses recent advances and challenges in terms of science technology innovation and policy for the development of the field and how marine biotechnology may provide new solutions to some of the grand challenges faced by our society Written in an accessible language the book is also recommended as a reference text for decision makers in government and non governmental organizations in their efforts to foster the development of a global blue economy With less than 5 % of the vast and rich marine environment explored our seas and oceans represent a virtually unexplored resource for the discovery of novel product processes and development of bio inspired synthetic drugs with biotechnological potential As such the marine environment has been considered Earth s last frontier of exploration Recent advances in molecular techniques are providing the necessary tools to access on a larger scale the still untapped ocean resources and consequently unveil the promise of the blue biotechnology Governments are recognizing the potential of marine biotechnology to provide solutions to some of the Grand Challenges of the 21st Century such as sustainable energy and food sources identification of novel drugs for improved health treatments and providing new industrial materials and processes For this reason advances in marine biotechnology may foster the much needed source of innovation and economic growth in many countries and pave the way towards the development of a global blue economy i e a new economic model based on the sustainable exploration of our ocean ecosystems

Cult Film as a Guide to Life I.Q. Hunter, 2016-09-08 Cult Film as a Guide to Life investigates the world and experience of cult films from well loved classics to the worst movies ever made Including comprehensive studies of cult phenomena such as trash films exploitation versions cult adaptations and case studies of movies as different as Showgirls Room 237 and The Lord of the G Strings this lively provocative and original book shows why cult films may just be the perfect guide to making sense of the contemporary world Using his expertise in two fields I Q Hunter also explores the important overlap between cult film and adaptation studies He argues that adaptation studies could learn a great deal from cult and fan studies about the importance of audiences emotional investment not only in texts but also in the relationships between them and how such bonds of caring are structured over time The book s emergent theme is cult film as lived experience With reference mostly to American cinema Hunter explores how cultists with their powerful emotional investment in films care for them over time and across numerous intertexts in relationships of memory nostalgia and anticipation Double-Takes David R.

Jarraway,2013-05-25 Over the past forty years Canadian literature has found its way to the silver screen with increasing regularity Beginning with the adaptation of Margaret Laurence's A Jest of God to the Hollywood film Rachel Rachel in 1966 Canadian writing would appear to have found a doubly successful life for itself at the movies from the critically acclaimed Kamouraska and The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz in the 1970s through to the award winning Love and Human Remains and The English Patient in the 1990s With the more recent notoriety surrounding the Oscar nominated Away from Her and the screen appearances of The Stone Angel and Fugitive Pieces this seems like an appropriate time for a collection of essays to reflect on the intersection between literary publication in Canada and its various screen transformations This volume discusses and debates several double edged issues the extent to which the literary artefact extends its artfulness to the film artefact the degree to which literary communities stand to gain or lose in contact with film communities and perhaps most of all the measure by which a viable relation between fiction and film can be said to exist in Canada and where that double life precisely manifests itself if at all This book is published in English Screen Adaptations and the Politics of Childhood

Robyn McCallum,2018-01-16 This book features a cutting edge approach to the study of film adaptations of literature for children and young people and the narratives about childhood those adaptations enact Historically film media has always had a partiality for the adaptation of classic literary texts for children As economic and cultural commodities McCallum points out how such screen adaptations play a crucial role in the cultural reproduction and transformation of childhood and youth and indeed are a rich resource for the examination of changing cultural values and ideologies particularly around contested narratives of childhood The chapters examine various representations of childhood as shifting states of innocence and wildness liminality marginalisation and invisibility The book focuses on a range of literary and film genres from classic texts to experimental carnivalesque magical realist and cross cultural texts Translation as a Set of Frames Ali

Almanna,Chonglong Gu,2021-07-14 Envisioned as a much needed celebration of the massive strides made in translation and interpreting studies this eclectic volume takes stock of the latest cutting edge research that exemplifies how translation and interpreting might interact with such topics as power ideological discourse representation hegemony and identity In this exciting volume we have articles from different language combinations e g Arabic English Hungarian and Chinese and from a wide range of sociopolitical cultural and institutional contexts and geographical locales China Iran Malaysia Russia and Nigeria Those chapters also draw on a diverse range of theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches e g critical discourse analysis Bourdieu's sociological theories corpus linguistics narrative theory and structuration theory focusing on translation and interpreting relating to various settings and specialised genres traditional media digital media subtitling manga etc As such this volume serves as a dynamic forum for intercultural and interlingual communication and an exciting arena for interdisciplinary dialogues thus enabling us to look beyond the traditionally more static mechanical and linguistics oriented views of translation and interpreting This book appeals to scholars and students interested in translation and interpreting studies and issues of power ideology identity in interlingual and intercultural communication The Pecorone of ser Giovanni, tr. by W.G. Waters Giovanni Fiorentino,1897 Adaptation Revisited Sarah Cardwell,2002-11-23 The classic novel adaptation has long been regarded as a staple of quality television Adaptation Revisited offers a critical reappraisal of this prolific and popular genre as well as bringing new material into the broader field of Television Studies The first part of the book surveys the more traditional discourses about adaptation unearthing the unspoken assumptions and common misconceptions that underlie them In the second half of the book the author examines four major British serials Brideshead Revisited Pride and Prejudice Moll Flanders and The Tenant of Wildfell Hall The History of American Literature on Film Thomas Leitch,2019-06-13 From William Dickson s Rip Van Winkle films 1896 to Baz Luhrmann s big budget production of The Great Gatsby 2013 and beyond cinematic adaptations of American literature participate in a rich and fascinating history Unlike previous studies of American literature and film which emphasize particular authors like Edith Wharton and Nathaniel Hawthorne particular texts like Moby Dick particular literary periods like the American Renaissance or particular genres like the novel this volume considers the multiple functions of filmed American literature as a cinematic genre in its own right one that reflects the specific political and aesthetic priorities of different national and historical cinemas even as it plays a decisive role in defining American literature for a global audience The Europeanness of European Cinema Mary Harrod,Mariana Liz,Alissa Timoshkina,2014-12-19 From The Artist to The White Ribbon from Oscar to Palme d Or winning productions European filmmaking is more prominent world wide than ever before This book identifies the distinctive character of European cinema both in films and as a critical concept asking what place does European cinema have in an increasingly globalized world Including in depth analyses of production and reception contexts as well as original readings of key European films from leading experts in the field it re negotiates traditional categories such as auteurism art cinema and national cinemas As the first publication to explore Europeanness in cinema this book refocuses and updates historically significant areas of study in relation to this term Leading scholars in European cinema including Thomas Elsaesser Tim Bergfelder Anne Jackel Lucy Mazdon and Ginette Vincendeau acknowledge the transnational character of European filmmaking whilst also exploring the oppositions between European and Hollywood filmmaking considering the value of the European label in the circulation of films within and beyond the continent The Europeanness of European Cinema makes a lively timely intervention in the fields of European and transnational film studies World Literature, Transnational Cinema, and Global Media Robert Stam,2019-02-18 With extraordinary transnational and transdisciplinary range World Literature Transnational Cinema and Global Media comprehensively explores the genealogies vocabularies and concepts orienting the fields within literature cinema and media studies Orchestrating a layered conversation between arts disciplines and media Stam argues for their mutual embeddedness and their shared in between territories Rather than merely adding to the existing scholarship the book builds a relational framework through the connectivities within literature cinema music and media that opens up analysis to new categories and concepts while crossing spatial temporal theoretical disciplinary and mediatic borders The book also questions an array of hierarchies literature over cinema source novel over adaptation feature film over documentary erudite over vernacular culture Western modernisms over peripheral modernisms classical over popular music written poetry over sung poetry and so forth The book is structured around the concept of the commons forming a strong thread which links various struggles against enclosures of all kinds with emphasis on natural indigenous cultural creative digital and the transdisciplinary commons World Literature Transnational Cinema and Global Media is ideal to further the theoretical discussion for those undergraduate and graduate departments in cinema studies media studies arts and art history communications journalism and new digital media programs at all levels
