The Guardians in Action William H. F. Altman, 2016-03-17 If you've ever wondered why Plato staged Timaeus as a kind of sequel to Republic or who its unnamed missing fourth might be or why he joined Critias to Timaeus and whether or not that strange dialogue is unfinished or what we should make of the written critique of writing in Phaedrus and of that dialogue's apparent lack of unity or what is the purpose of the long discussion of the One in the second half of Parmenides and how it relates to the objections made to the Theory of Forms in its first half or if the revisionists or unitarians are right about Philebus and why its Socrates seems less charming than usual or whether or not Cratylus takes place after Euthyphro and whether its far fetched etymologies accomplish any serious philosophical purpose or why the philosopher Socrates describes in the central digression of Theaetetus is so different from Socrates himself then you will enjoy reading the continuation of William H F Altman's Plato the Teacher The Crisis of the Republic Lexington 2012 where he considers the pedagogical connections behind the post Republic dialogues from Timaeus to Theaetetus in the context of the Reading Order of Plato's dialogues Boxes of Delights Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-12

F. Altman, 2016-07-19

Based on a conception of Reading Order introduced and developed in his Plato the Teacher The Crisis of the Republic Lexington 2012 and The Guardians in Action Plato the Teacher and the Post Republic Dialogues from Timaeus to Theaetetus Lexington 2016 William H F Altman now completes his study of Plato's so called late dialogues by showing that they include those that depict the trial and death of Socrates According to Altman it is not Order of Composition but Reading Order that makes Euthyphro Apology of Socrates Crito and Phaedo late dialogues and he shows why Plato's decision to interpolate the notoriously late Sophist and Statesman between Euthyphro and Apology deserves more respect from interpreters Altman explains this interpolation and another that places Laws between Crito and Phaedo as part of an ongoing test Plato has created for his readers that puts the Guardians on Trial If we don't recognize that Socrates himself is the missing Philosopher that the Eleatic Stranger never actually describes and also the antithesis of the Athenian Stranger who leaves Athens in order to create laws for Crete we pronounce ourselves too sophisticated to be Plato's Guardians and unworthy of the Socratic inheritance
