A History of Council Housing in 100 Estates John Boughton, 2022-11-01 It was like heaven It was like a palace even without anything in it We'd got this lovely lovely house In 1980 there were well over 5 million council homes in Britain housing around one third of the population The right of all to adequate housing had been recognised in the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights but long before that popular notions of what constituted a moral economy had advanced the idea that everyone was entitled to adequate shelter At its best council housing has been at the vanguard of housing progress an example to the private sector and a lifeline for working class and vulnerable people However with the emergence of Thatcherism the veneration of the free market and a desire to curtail public spending council housing became seen as a problem not a solution We are now in the midst of a housing crisis with 1.4 million fewer social homes at affordable rent than in 1980 In this highly illustrated survey eminent social historian John Boughton author of Municipal Dreams examines the remarkable history of social housing in the UK He presents 100 examples from the almshouses of the 16th century to Goldsmith Street the 2019 winner of the RIBA Stirling Prize Through the various political aesthetic and ideological changes the well being of community and environment demands that good housing for all must prevail Features 100 examples of social housing from all over the UK illustrated with over 250 images including photographs and sketches A complete history dating from early charitable provision to homes for
