BY : SWAROOPA KHANGAROT

- ▢ Historical sources are the original sources which contain any kind of historical information. They are the ways through which we can understand about past events.
- ▢ Historical testimonials, inscriptions, coins and other archaeological and literary sources cite the immediate political, social and economic information about the lineages of various dynasties, historical events, art and architecture, life of locals and their culture etc.
- ▢ Compared with Ancient India, a large number of literary sources are available for the Medieval India.
- ▢ These sources provide a more reliable information and insight about the life of the people of the period.
- ▢ Sources inform us of the administrative setup of the rulers, their theory of kinship, military achievements etc.
- ▢ They reflect the state of cultural, economic, political and religious institutions.
