South African Human Resource Management:

South African Human Resource Management Ben Swanepoel, 2003 South African Human Resource Management focuses on the knowledge and skills that managers at all levels need. The authors integrate contemporary international research and implementation with a South African perspective. South African Human Resource Management for the Public Sector Barney Erasmus, 2005 This report discusses important themes in the field of human resource management for the public sector including managing employee relations strategizing and planning human resources departments and selecting employees within the equal employment opportunity guidelines. Current legislation of the field is discussed and new theories on local and international applied research are explored. South African Human Resource Management for the Public Sector Ernst Van der Westhuizen, Jacobus Wessels, 2016 Written from a uniquely South African perspective this book explores the many facets of the employment relationship. These include strategic employment processes staff maintenance trade union interactions public sector labour relations and terminating employment relationships. This well researched text adapted from the best selling South African Human Resource Management Theory and Practice Swanepoel Erasmus Van Wyk and Schenk is rich in theory and applications. It explains the latest developments in structuring learning programmes for public officials so that they are in line with the South African Qualifications Authority SAQA the National Qualifications Framework NQF as well as employment equity and affirmative action policies. It further details a workable Human Resource Management strategy for the public sector that includes practices in relation to performance management appraisal systems compensation and incentives management and relevant legislation and regulations. This 2nd edition will be indispensable for all public sector managers HR specialists corporate strategists trade unionists as well as undergraduate and postgraduate Public Administration and Management students. South African Human Resource Management Ben Swanepoel, Barney Erasmus, Heinz Schenk, 2008 Book Strategising designing and planning as preparatory HRM work Sourcing work talent Facing the countrys people empowerment challenge Meeting the reward and care challenge Handling labour and employee relations challenges Championing change and transformation Managing HRM related information including HRM and sustainability reporting. Based on most recent theoretical developments the emphasis is on the practical applications. Samples of relevant documents are included and an accompanying CD contains a wealth of relevant resources as well as a continuing integrating case study that serves as a basis for these applications and individual and group activities. As a package South African Human Resource Management will be extremely valuable to both current and aspirant managers and human resource practitioners. South African Human Resource Management B.J. Swanepoel, B.J. Erasmus, H.W. Schenk, M.C.
