Landy, David T. Montgomery, 2012-04-03 Building on Robert J Landy's seminal text Handbook of Educational Drama and Theatre Landy and Montgomery revisit this richly diverse and ever changing field identifying some of the best international practices in Applied Drama and Theatre Through interviews with leading practitioners and educators such as Dorothy Heathcote Jan Cohen Cruz James Thompson and Johnny Salda the authors lucidly present the key concepts theories and reflective praxis of Applied Drama and Theatre As they discuss the changes brought about by practitioners in venues such as schools community centres village squares and prisons Landy and Montgomery explore the field's ability to make meaning of a vast range of personal and social issues through the application of drama and theatre The Thousand Generation

Covenant: Dutch Reformed Covenant Theology and Group Identity in Colonial South Africa, 1652-1814 Gerstner, 2021-12-06 This study presents the religious factor in the development of a separatistic group identity among the forebears of the Afrikaners during the Dutch colonial period of South African history Dutch Reformed covenant theology and baptism practice rooted in the thousand generation covenant theory helped to shape this self understanding It traces the basic developments of covenant theology in the Netherlands during the period and demonstrates how these concepts were conveyed to colonial South Africa The dominant strain of covenantal thought treated the entire community as redeemed and called to be separate It was presented through a variety of means through which virtually every colonist was exposed This study offers a balanced historical approach to the role of theological concepts in the colonial roots of Afrikaner group identity It answers traditional scholarship in the field which either directly identify the concepts behind the development of apartheid with Calvinist theology or more recently deny that the Reformed faith had any role in the development of apartheid ideology until the twentieth century The Living Church, 1955 For God's Sake Antony Loewenstein, Jane Caro, Rachel

Woodlock, Simon Smart, 2013-07-01 Four Australian thinkers come together to ask and answer the big questions such as What is the nature of the universe Doesn't religion cause most of the conflict in the world and Where do we find hope We are introduced to the detail of different belief systems Judaism Christianity Islam and to the argument that atheism like organised religion has its own compelling logic And we gain insight into the life events that led each author to their current position Jane Caro flirted briefly with spiritual belief inspired by 19th century literary heroines such as Elizabeth Gaskell and the Brontë sisters Antony Lowenstein is proudly culturally yet unconventionally Jewish Simon Smart is firmly and resolutely a Christian but one who has had some of his most profound spiritual moments while surfing Rachel Woodlock grew up in the alternative embrace of Baha'i belief but became entranced by its older parent religion Islam Provocative informative and passionately argued For God's Sake encourages us to accept religious differences but to also challenge more vigorously the beliefs that create discord Growing Great Kids Kate Battistelli, 2012 Successful adults don't happen by accident It takes wisdom and time to raise a child into an adult with a strong sense of his destiny in God Battistelli shares what she and her husband Mike learned about parenting during the journey of raising their daughter award winning contemporary Christian recording artist Francesca Battistelli Children of the Waters of Meribah Allan Aubrey Boesak,2019-09-17 In the decades since Black liberation theology burst onto the scene it has turned the world of church society and academia upside down It has changed lives and ways of thinking as well But now there is a question What lessons has Black theology not learned as times have changed In this expansion of the 2017 Yale Divinity School Beecher Lectures Allan Boesak explores this question If Black liberation theology had taken the issues discussed in these pages much more seriously struggled with them much more intensely thoroughly and honestly would it have been in a better position to help oppressed black people in Africa the United States and oppressed communities everywhere as they have faced the challenges of the last twenty five years In a critical self critical engagement with feminist and especially African feminist theologians in a trans disciplinary conversation Allan Boesak as Black liberation theologian from the Global South offers tentative but intriguing responses to the vital questions facing Black liberation theology today particularly those questions raised by the women God, Suffering, and Pentecostals Marius Nel,2022-02-04 Pentecostals emphasize that God is still the Healer of all illnesses implying that God answers all prayers What about those who are not healed How do we explain suffering Why does a good God allow suffering Is God not powerful enough to prevent it In this publication the author reconsiders these questions from a Pentecostal hermeneutical perspective to develop a novel way to think about God s involvement with suffering among people His experimental theology speculates how a Pentecostal ethos accommodates a theodicy that acknowledges suffering and God s involvement in people s lives Although the book is a theologically constituted attempt anyone can follow and understand its arguments It concludes with alternative views of suffering evil God s loving attention to people the doctrine of original sin and Satan The author also suggests some ways to respond to suffering Christian Companion ,1907

Bonhoeffer's Questions John W. de Gruchy,2019-11-08 While in prison during the Third Reich Dietrich Bonhoeffer raised several core questions in his correspondence with his close friend Eberhard Bethge How shall future generations live Who is Jesus Christ actually for us today What does it mean to be truly human And who am I In Bonhoeffer s Questions John W de Gruchy explores the development of each question in the course of Bonhoeffer s life how he attempted to answer them and how each prompted further questions in an ongoing conversation with himself with others and now with us today De Gruchy does this within the framework of his own life long and life changing conversation with Bonhoeffer in the context of South Africa from the beginning of the apartheid era to the present day He also describes how he has come to know Bonhoeffer as a theological witness to Christ a prophet of God s justice and a Christian humanist before proceeding with a series of questions addressed to Bonhoeffer with the reader in mind These range from the debate about God and the future of Christianity to the involvement of Christians and the church in political struggles today Congressional Record United States.
