

When, early in the morning, the snow was still on the hills, the wind of the night had been so strong that the snow had been blown off the hills, and the hills were now bare, and the snow was on the ground.

The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground. The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground. The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground.

That was the first time that I had seen the snow. It was a very strange sight, and I had never seen it before. The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground. The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground.

The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground. The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground. The snow was on the ground, and the hills were bare, and the snow was on the ground.
