South-Eastern Europe after Tito David Carlton, Carlo Schaerf, 1983-06-18 Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989 Eastern Europe Since 1970 Bulent Gokay, 2015-12-22 From the hardening grip of Soviet domination under Brezhnev to the collapse of communism and its aftermath Bulent Gokay provides the essential introduction to Eastern Europe in the last quarter of the twentieth century The Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 spelt the end of reformist communism and the tightening of Soviet control throughout Eastern Europe In spite of this several countries within the Soviet Bloc managed to retain varying degrees of independence over the next two decades Focusing on the struggle towards economic and social modernisation in the region and the competing influences of East and West in a dangerous Cold War Bulent Gokay shows how individual circumstances and diverse national characteristics made a uniform application of the Soviet model impossible and charts the growing resistance to domination and the momentous events which finally toppled Soviet power in the region Naval Policy and Strategy in the Mediterranean John B. Hattendorf, 2013-11-05 Maritime strategy and naval power in the Mediterranean touches on migration the environment technology economic power international politics and law as well as calculations of naval strength and diplomatic manoeuvre These broad and fundamental themes are explored in this volume Governance in Multicultural Societies Gurharpal Singh, 2017-09-08 In the last decade the study of multiculturalism has become an established field in political and social theory This in depth and engaging volume focuses on public policy and the dilemmas faced by the governments of increasingly diverse societies Offering a theoretically and empirically rich collection of essays from some of the leading specialists in the field it fills the gap between the social and political theory of multiculturalism and institutionally based national case studies The book is distinctive in combining a robust theoretical introduction to recent developments in multiculturalism with a critical evaluation of contemporary public policy in a variety of countries in Europe South Asia Southeast Asia the Far East and South Africa It incorporates a strong comparative dimension both within and across the case studies with a regional focus enabling comparisons of regional national and international experience Routledge Handbook of Mediterranean Politics Richard Gillespie, Frédéric Volpi, 2017-08-14 The Mediterranean space defined by a major sea a large number of littoral countries and to some extent their hinterlands is at the same time an interface between Europe Africa and Asia This brings complex challenges in terms of achieving peace and stability Recently it has received intense international attention through the internal destructiveness and spill over from conflicts primarily those waged in Libya Syria and more remotely Iraq This Handbook provides an overview of the political processes that shape the Mediterranean region in the contemporary context It explores the issues of crucial importance to Mediterranean dynamics through a series of analytical sections that guide the reader towards a comprehensive understanding of the main regional interactions and trends The Handbook explores the complex historical formation of the contemporary Mediterranean geopolitical perspectives issues around peace and conflict

the political economy of the region the role of non state actors and social movements societal and cultural trends The wide range of contributions from many of the leading academic experts on the region offers not only insights into the debates and processes that structure each theme but also key pointers for a more general understanding of how distinct political economic social and cultural dynamics interact across the region It will therefore be a key resource for policy makers and students and scholars of Mediterranean politics and international relations
