It is a must for musical theatre enthusiasts performers students collectors and anyone who enjoys Show Tunes. Women in American Musical Theatre Bud Coleman, Judith A. Sebesta, 2020-10-22 Throughout the twentieth century women have made significant contributions to the creation of American musical theatre. Directing choreographing writing arranging producing and designing musicals in a variety of venues throughout America women have played a significant role in shaping the development of musical theatre both on and off Broadway and in regional educational and community venues. The essays in this book examine the history of women in musical theatre providing biographical descriptions of the women themselves analyses and interpretations of their productions and several accounts of how being a woman affected the artists careers. Topics include the similarities among the careers of successful but neglected lyricists Rida Johnson Young Anne Caldwell and Dorothy Donnelly the Depression era productions of Hallie Flanagan and Cheryl Crawford the transformation of the classic showgirl image through the dances and stage movement created by prominent female choreographers and a survey of numerical data highlighting the discrepancy between the number of men versus the number of women hired to direct professional musical productions in various venues across the United States. The ^AOxford Companion to the American Musical Thomas S. Hischak, 2008-06-02 Here is an engaging and authoritative reference to this highly popular genre the only such book to cover stage film and television musicals in one volume. With more than two thousand entries this book offers a wealth of information on musicals performers composers lyricists producers choreographers and much more. The Companion also includes cross references a comprehensive listing of recommended recordings and a useful chronological listing of all the musicals described in the book. The Music for "Victory at Sea" George Joseph Ferencz, 2023 This long awaited study explores the creation of NBC TV's landmark 1952-53 WWII documentary series with particular attention to its evocative Rodgers Bennett score. Victory at Sea NBC TV's innovative 1952-53 WWII documentary was eventually broadcast to more than 100 million viewers worldwide. Its episodes chronicled the war's conflicts while highlighting the US Navy's contributions. NBC having sourced footage from the military governments and newsreel agencies of fourteen nations Victory's special distinction was its music with each episode's nonstop score recorded by the acclaimed NBC Symphony Orchestra. The music was credited to Richard Rodgers then at the height of his fame as composer and Robert Russell Bennett as arranger and conductor. In fact, Rodgers composed twelve piano themes; Bennett developed these endlessly for orchestra and in addition composed many hours of the score outright. Part One chronicles Victory's gestation and production at NBC; its reception, the series' afterlife in syndication and home video, and the score's Gold Record sales success on RCA records. Part Two examines each episode in turn, focusing on how the Bennett-scored music pairs with screen action. Every transformation of the much-used Rodgers themes is cited along with the episodes' musical interrelationships. The hundreds of musical examples generously sample the score's 111 2 hours of music. NBC's Victory has been neglected by Richard Rodgers's biographers and by film historians. As the series celebrates its 70th anniversary, the Rodgers-Bennett score here finally receives recognition for its artistry and power.

The Complete Lyrics of Oscar Hammerstein II Oscar Hammerstein II, 2008-11-25

From every beautiful mornin' to some enchanted evening, the songs of Oscar Hammerstein II are part of our daily lives; his words part of our national fabric. Born into a theatrical dynasty headed by his grandfather and namesake, Oscar Hammerstein II breathed new life into the moribund art form of operetta by writing lyrics and libretti for such classics as Rose Marie (music by Rudolf Friml), The Desert Song (Sigmund Romberg), The New Moon (Romberg), and Song of the Flame (George Gershwin). Hammerstein and Jerome Kern wrote eight musicals together, including Sweet Adeline, Music in the Air, and their masterpiece Show Boat. The vibrant Carmen Jones was Hammerstein's all-black adaptation of the tragic opera by Georges Bizet. In 1943, Hammerstein, pioneer in the field of operetta, joined forces with Richard Rodgers, who had for the previous twenty-five years taken great strides in the field of musical comedy with his longtime writing partner Lorenz Hart. The first Rodgers and Hammerstein work, Oklahoma!, merged the two styles into a completely new genre, the musical play, and simultaneously launched the most successful partnership in American musical theater. Over the next seventeen years, Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote eight more Broadway musicals: Carousel, Allegro, South Pacific, The King and I, Me and Juliet, Pipe Dream, Flower Drum Song, and The Sound of Music. They also wrote a movie musical, State Fair, and one for television, Cinderella. Collectively, their works have earned dozens of awards, including Pulitzers, Tonys, Oscars, Grammys, and Emmys. Throughout his career, Hammerstein created works of lyrical beauty and universal feeling, and he continually strove, sometimes against fashion, to seek out the good and beautiful in the world. I know the world is filled with troubles and many injustices he once said But reality is as beautiful as it is ugly I just couldn't write anything without hope in it All of his lyrics are here 850 more than a quarter published for the first time in this sixth book in the indispensable Complete Lyrics series that has also brought us the lyrics of Cole Porter Lorenz Hart Ira Gershwin Irving Berlin and Frank Loesser From the young scribe's earliest attempts to the old master's final lyric Edelweiss we can see read and yes sing the words of a theatrical and lyrical genius The Library of Congress Author Catalog Library of Congress, 1953 The Complete Annotated Gilbert and Sullivan Ian C.
