More Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in Barnsley Geoffrey Howse, 2007-08-16 Barnsley and the surrounding area has a dark and sinister past. There were many foul deeds committed throughout the centuries of the most heinous kind and many suspicious circumstances. Poverty was at the root of many of the early cases. During the Victorian period some seemingly uncaring magistrates appeared to take the view that to be poor was a crime to be dealt with severely and meted out extreme penalties. The unhappy state of some criminals resulted in ending their days in the workhouse. Throughout the 20th century the area was periodically rocked with murder cases which often made the national headlines. Steel City Ian D. Rotherham, 2018-06-15 Ian D Rotherham offers an illustrated history of Sheffield one of Britain's great industrial centres.

More Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths in & Around Barnsley Geoffrey Howse, 2009-07-30 In his second book in the Foul Deeds series relating to Barnsley and its neighborhood Geoffrey Howse continues to uncover aspects of the area's darker and more sinister past. Many districts not covered in the first volume are included here. Read about the shooting of Lord Wharncliffe's head gamekeeper at Pilley in 1867, the capture of the killers and the sensational trial, also about the murder of William Swann in Wombwell by his wife Emily and John Gallagher both hanged in 1903. Other features included the case of a Polish resident Wilhelm Lubina executed at Leeds in 1953 for murdering Charlotte Bell in Barnsley. A rich and compelling miscellany of local misdemeanors from Victorian and Edwardian times are recounted too: robbery at Thurlstone, violent assault at Worsbrough and Hoyland, Swaine highway robbery at Gawber, theft at Hoyland and Elsecar, attempted wife murder at Thurgoland, poaching at Cudworth. There is also the unusual case of manslaughter against Maria Cooper killed with others in a fireworks explosion in Barnsley. An absorbing read and source of reference for anyone interested in local social and criminal history. News in the Regions Alastair Hetherington, 1989-06-01 This book gives an inside view of journalists at work in the Midlands, Yorkshire, South East England and Central Scotland, with relevance also to other areas. It examines news priorities, decision making, sources and the differences between newspapers, television news and radio. Railway News, Finance and Joint-stock Companies' Journal, 1869 The Decline of European Naval Forces Jeremy Stohs, 2018-04-15 The Decline of European Naval Forces aims to provide insight into the evolution of Europe's naval forces since the end of the Cold War. To illuminate the drastic changes many European navies have undergone over the last twenty-five years, Jeremy Stohs analyzes the defense policies and naval strategies of eleven European states as well as the evolution, deployment and capabilities of their respective naval forces. In these case studies, the development of Europe's most important naval forces is assessed per the respective strategic framework in which they have operated over the past two decades. Stohs describes not only the general composition of each force but also the range of their capabilities and their important technical features. His study shows that since the end of the Cold War, all but a few European navies have significantly decreased in size and thus have ceded important capabilities along the way. Based on the understanding of sea power as a prerequisite for political influence.

and economic health the consequences of the geopolitical shift toward the Asian Pacific region and most importantly the general decline of Europe's traditional naval capabilities the author concludes that the ability of European states to influence events near and abroad by means of their naval forces has atrophied and will continue to be called into question in the future
