manner Covid 19 is not only a deadly virus but has a domino effect that is also terrible One of the policies used by the government in preventing and controlling the spread of Covid 19 is implementing the Large Scale Social Restrictions PSBB policy As an investment culture also requires strategies and enablers so that it is able to achieve the target of the happiness and welfare of the Indonesian people This strategy is implemented through providing for a diversity of cultural expressions developing cultural practices utilizing cultural promotion objects accelerating institutional reform and increasing the government's role as a facilitator Teaching issues especially teaching methods of language literature and culture need to be highlighted in terms of IT based innovation and creativity after Covid 19 How especially teaching methods in applying the material Research on learning methods has also been carried out a lot especially methods that focus on students entering the new normal era or the new era after Covid 19 with innovative research and learning of language literature and culture It is interesting to reveal a major event namely the 3rd International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies sponsored by the Faculty of Cultural Sciences Hasanuddin University Makassar

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia's plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore Cultural Policy and East Asian Rivalry Anthony Y. H. Fung, 2018-05-01 Hong Kong was once an established hub of creativity in Asia recognized internationally for its cinema Bruce Lee and Kung Fu Cantopop its particular form of pop music was popular throughout China and East Asia from the 1970s So why is Hong Kong's creative industry today in a state of stagnation Cultural Policy and East Asian Rivalry unravels the challenges faced by the creative industries in Hong Kong in relation to the wider East Asian context in countries including Singapore Japan Korea Vietnam Malaysia and China Based on a four year study of the gaming industry in Hong Kong this book explores the barriers that creative industries face in the region Fung argues that a lack of cultural policy in Hong Kong has damaged the gaming industry and by extension all creative industries in the region by rendering them uncompetitive Conversely the growing strength of cultural policy in other countries across the region has created further barriers for the industry Vietnamese-Chinese Relationships at the Borderlands Yuk Wah Chan, 2013-11-12 Ever since China and Vietnam resumed diplomatic contacts and reopened the border in 1991 the borderland region has become part of the vibrant growing economies of both countries and drawn many from the interior provinces to the borderland for new economic adventures This book examines Chinese Vietnamese relationships at the borderland through every day cross border interaction in trade and tourism activities It looks into the historical underlining of bilateral relations of the two countries which often shape people's perceptions of the other and interpretation of intentions of acts in their daily interaction Albeit Chinese and Vietnamese have lived side by side for centuries their interaction in the space of trade and modern tourism in post war and post reform China and Vietnam is something novel to both people The book provides a bottom up approach to examine the localized experiences of inter state relations It illustrates the changes the vibrant economic process has brought to the borderland communities and how the revived contacts and interaction have generated a contested space for examining Vietnamese Chinese relationships and demonstrating trans border cultural politics A novel study of the strategic development of the borderland within the new political economy at China Southeast Asia border region this book is of interest to academics in the field of Anthropology Border Studies Social and Cultural Studies and Asian Studies

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re-visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts

However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore's mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies

Building Area Studies Collections Dan C. Hazen, James H. Spohrer, 2007 These essays by noted Area Studies specialists at a number of US research libraries serve as a practical and theoretical guide to university and college administrators library directors and heads of collection development as well as selection practitioners who work to create foreign language collections for research libraries The volume constitutes a general introduction for new practitioners and even the most experienced Area Studies librarians will find useful practical advice for reviewing and refining their existing collecting practices Coverage includes East Asia Latin America Southeast Asia Africa South Asia and the Romance language areas of Europe as well as the German Nordic Netherlandic countries Each essay presents the Area Studies topic in question from an historical perspective and provides background on its present status and anticipated future development Special emphasis is placed on the techniques of both print and digital collecting and on the assessment methods by which collection strengths and future needs are determined Guidelines for expenditures for both collections and collateral activities such as providing access and preservation are provided and contributors also supply extensive documentation for the burgeoning array of online digital resources which have emerged in the past decade The volume editors Dan C Hazen Harvard and James H Spohrer University of California Berkeley also provide a general introduction to the topic and a detailed summary of current cooperative activities in Area Studies collecting

Legal Protection of Intangible Cultural Heritage Diyana Sulaiman, 2024-05-17 The book examines whether the protection of Intangible Cultural Heritage ICH by Indonesia and Malaysia upheld the interests of the various communities from which the cultural heritage originates and whether the laws recognise that cultural heritage is often shared with other states and communities The legal classifications of various indigenous communities and the interpretations of indigeneity in the two countries have presented problems in the context of ICH protection The state is regarded as holding the intellectual property rights for some forms of ICH and this also posed problems in the implementation of the laws to protect the communities ICH This book employs a community based perspective and adopts a multidisciplinary approach in exploring questions of the rights to and benefits of heritage This book will be useful for students academics and policy makers with an interest in international law heritage and intellectual property rights

Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, Louise O. Vasvári, 2011-08-05 The studies presented in the collected volume Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies edited by Steven Totosy de Zepetnek and Louise O Vasvari are intended as an addition to scholarship in comparative cultural studies. More specifically, the articles represent scholarship about Central and East European culture with special attention to Hungarian culture, literature, cinema, new media, and other areas of cultural expression. On the landscape of scholarship in Central and East Europe, including Hungary, cultural studies has acquired at best spotty interest, and studies in the volume aim at forging interest in the field. The volume's articles are in five parts: part one, History, Theory, and Methodology of Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies, includes studies on the prehistory of multicultural and multilingual Central Europe where vernacular literatures were first institutionalized for developing a sense of national identity; Part two, Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies and Literature and Culture, is about the re-evaluation of canonical works as well as Jewish studies which has been explored inadequately in Central European scholarship; Part three, Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies and Other Arts, includes articles on race, jazz, operetta, and art; fin de siècle architecture, communist era female fashion, and cinema. In part four, Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies and Gender, articles are about aspects of gender and sexuality with examples from fin de siècle transvestism, current media depictions of heterodox sexualities, and gendered language in the workplace. The volume's last section, part five, Comparative Hungarian Cultural Studies of Contemporary Hungary, includes articles about post-1989 issues of race and ethnic relations, citizenship and public life, and new media.

Cultural Studies of Rights John Nguyet Erni, 2014-06-11 At a time of global uncertainties and erosion of liberties, how will cultural studies clear a space for a parallel intellectual and political engagement with human rights practice? How will human rights thinking be liberated from its doctrinal approach to ethics and legal justice? This book forges an alliance between cultural studies and human rights scholarships to help us better understand the changing and complex political context that continuously shapes contemporary violence. To date, interdisciplinary dialogue or institutional collaboration remains rare across the two domains, resulting in critical interpretive work appearing too vacuous at times and institutional legal work often trapped in doctrinalism. By opening a door for a new and engaging scholarship, this book will re-ignite debates and passions within communication and critical cultural studies in the search for global justice. This book was originally published as a special issue of Communication and Critical Cultural Studies.

Singapore Cinema Kai Khiun Liew, Stephen Teo, 2016-11-25 This book outlines and discusses the very wide range of cinema which is to be found in Singapore. Although Singapore cinema is a relatively small industry and relatively new, it has nevertheless made an impact and continues to develop in interesting ways. The book shows that although Singapore cinema is often seen as part of diasporic Chinese cinema, it is in fact much more than this, with strong connections to Malay cinema and the cinemas of other Southeast Asian nations. Moreover, the themes and subjects covered by Singapore cinema are very wide-ranging, from conformity to the regime and Singapore's national outlook with undesirable subjects overlooked or erased, to the sympathetic depiction of minorities and an outlook which is at odds with the official outlook. The book will be useful to readers coming new to the subject and wanting a concise overview while at the same time the book puts forward many new research findings and much new thinking Research in Education ,1973-12 Popular Culture in Asia Lorna Fitzsimmons,John A. Lent,2013-05-07 Popular Culture in Asia consists studies of film music architecture television and computer mediated communication in China Japan South Korea Taiwan the Philippines Malaysia and Singapore addressing three topics urban modernities modernity celebrity and fan culture and memory and modernity Gender Diversity in Indonesia Sharyn Graham Davies,2010-02-25 Same sex relations transvestism and cross gender behaviour have long been noted amongst a wide range of Indonesian peoples This book explores dominant theories of gender and sexuality in relation to gender diversity in Indonesia It discusses in particular intersexed groups such as calalai calabai and bissu Cultural Studies Lawrence Grossberg,Janice Radway,2005-06-27 An international journal committed to exploring the relationships between cultural practices and everyday life economic relations the material world the State and historical forces and contexts It seeks to foster more open analytic critical and political conversations by encouraging people to push the dialogue into fresh uncharted territory It also aims to intervene in the process by which the existing techniques institutions and structures of power are reproduced resisted and transformed
