Southeast Asian Affairs 2005:

Southeast Asian Affairs 2005 Chin Kin Wah, 2003-08-01 Since its inception 30 years ago Southeast Asian Affairs SEAA has been an indispensable annual reference for generations of policy makers scholars analysts journalists and others Succinctly written by regional and international experts SEAA illuminates significant issues and events of the previous year in each of the 10 Southeast Asian nations and the region as a whole Southeast Asian Affairs, 2008 Political and Security Dynamics of South and Southeast Asia Daljit Singh, 2007 Provides perspectives from India and Singapore on some of the major security and political issues facing the two regions Looks at regional integrations trends roles of the major powers maritime security in the Indian Ocean region and political and security developments within Southeast Asia Politics and Society in Southeast Asia Peter A. Poole, 2014-11-18 The Asian financial crisis of 1997 1998 caused severe hardship in Southeast Asia and many countries tightened their regulation of banks and other financial institutions adopted more conservative fiscal policies and made themselves less vulnerable to Western market fluctuations by forming closer trade and investment ties with their neighbors This book analyzes the major political and economic reforms that resulted from the Asian financial crisis looking particularly at how such reforms helped to prepare Asian countries for coping with the 2009 global recession In each of the ten country chapters the historical background social and political system economic development and foreign relations of each country are analyzed and compared with those of neighboring countries The concluding chapter looks ahead at the prospects for Southeast Asia in a more integrated Asian region Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here China, The United States, and the Future of Southeast Asia David B. H. Denoon, 2017-05-16 Distinguished experts explain the economic trends and varied political goals at work in Southeast Asia With China's emergence as a powerful entity in Southeast Asia the region has become an unlikely site of conflict between two of the world's great powers The United States historically regarded as the protector of Pacific Southeast Asia consisting of nations such as Vietnam the Philippines Myanmar and Malaysia is now called upon to respond to what many would consider bullying on the part of the Chinese These and other countries have become the economic and political engine of China While certainly inclined to help the country's former allies the United States has grown undeniably closer to China in the recent decades of global interconnected economic growth China the United States and the Future of Southeast Asia uncovers and delves into the complicated dynamics of this situation Covering topics such as the controversial response to human rights violations the effects of global economic interconnectedness and contested sovereignty over resource rich islands this volume provides a modern and nuanced perspective on the state of the region For anyone interested in understanding the evolving global balance of power China the United States and the Future of Southeast Asia illuminates how countries as different as Thailand and Indonesia see the growing competition between Beijing and Washington Strangers Next Door? Tim Lindsey, Dave McRae, 2018-02-22 There are no two neighbouring countries anywhere in the world that are more different than Indonesia and Australia. They differ hugely in religion, language, culture, history, geography, race, economics, worldview, and population. Indonesia has 270 million people, Australia less than 10 per cent of that. In fact, Indonesia and Australia have almost nothing in common other than the accident of geographic proximity. This makes their relationship turbulent, volatile, and often unpredictable. Strangers Next Door brings together insiders and leading observers to critically assess the state of Australia-Indonesia relations and their future prospects, offering insights into why the relationship is so important for Australia, why it is so often in crisis, and what this means for the future. This book will be of interest to anyone concerned with the Indo-Pacific region, Southeast Asia, Australia, and Indonesia, and each country's politics, economy, and foreign policy. It contains chapters that will interest specialists but are written in a style accessible to a general audience. The book spans a diverse range of subjects, including political relations and diplomacy, security and defence, the economy and trade, Islam, education, development, the arts, legal cooperation, the media, women, and community ties. Contributors assess the current state of relations in their sphere of expertise and outline the factors and policies that could shape bilateral ties and Indonesia's future over the coming decades. University of Melbourne scholars Tim Lindsey and Dave McRae, both prominent observers and commentators on Indonesia and its relations with Australia, edited the volume, providing a synthesising overview as well as their own thematic chapters. Malaysian Maverick B. Wain, 2009-11-30

Mahathir Mohamad turned Malaysia into one of the developing world's most successful economies. He adopted pragmatic economic policies alongside repressive political measures and showed that Islam was compatible with representative government and modernization. He emerged as a Third World champion and Islamic spokesman by standing up to the West. Rise Of China And India, The: A New Asian Drama Peng Er Lam, Tai Wei Lim, Prapat Thepchatree, 2009-05-29. The most remarkable phenomenon in Asia in the 21st century is arguably the economic rise of China and India. Amazingly, the two most populous countries in the world are uplifting millions of their citizens annually from poverty through rapid economic growth. What is the impact on the region given the ascendance of China and India? There are at least two possible outcomes: the rise of the two great Asian powers may challenge the US and instill fear among the smaller countries in Asia, or China and India will act as new economic dynamos that will benefit the region even if US economic presence in the region is to decline in the future. This book explores the opportunities and obstacles to a harmonious region underpinned by the rise of China and India.

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia Meredith Weiss, 2014-10-17. The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia offers a broad analytical survey of Malaysia. It provides a comprehensive survey of significant topics in Malaysian politics, economy, and society today, focussing on issues, institutions, and trends. The Private Sector's Role in Poverty Reduction in Asia Scott Hipsher,2013-01-07 The private sector has an important role in poverty reduction in Asia The Private Sector s Role in Poverty Reduction in Asia argues that the best way to create sustainable projects is to create win win situations where both private companies and individuals working their way out of poverty can benefit The book provides a practical guide for managers and individuals working in the private sector in the least developed areas of Asia to help make a difference to the lives of others The book s opening chapter considers the private sector s role in poverty reduction in Asia and following chapters discuss the variable nature of development developing economy environments in Asia and business practices and strategies in these economies A number of Asian economies are considered in turn including China Vietnam Thailand Cambodia Laos PDR Southeast Asian countries South Asian countries Central Asian countries and the Himalayas The final chapter looks at creating sustainable win win situations Focuses on practical advice for acting managers Uses primary research carried out in developing economies with interviews and ideas from local managers and business owners Covers a variety of academic theories empirical evidence and personal experiences of individuals working in the region

Dictatorship, Disorder and Decline in Myanmar Monique Skidmore,Trevor Wilson,2008-12-01 Mass peaceful protests in Myanmar Burma in 2007 drew the world s attention to the ongoing problems faced by this country and its oppressed people In this publication experts from around the world analyse the reasons for these recent political upheavals explain how the country s economy education and health sectors are in perceptible decline and identify the underlying authoritarian pressures that characterise Myanmar Burma s military regime

Asian Perceptions of Gulf Security Li-Chen Sim,Jonathan Fulton,2022-11-28 Gulf stability is coming to play a larger role in the foreign policy calculus of many states but the evolving role of Asian powers is largely under represented in the International Relations literature This volume addresses this gap with a set of empirically rich theory driven case studies written by academics from or based in the countries in question The underlying assumption is not that Asian powers have already become important security actors in the Gulf but rather that they perceive the Gulf as a region of increasing strategic relevance How will leaders in these countries adjust to an evolving regional framework Will there be coordinated efforts to establish an Asian centered approach to Gulf stability or will Asian rivalries make the region a theater of competition Will US China tensions force alignment choices among Asian powers Will Asian states balance bandwagon hedge or adopt some other approach to their Gulf relationships These questions become even more important as the western boundaries of Asia increasingly come to incorporate the Middle East The book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of International Relations Security Studies and International Political Economy as well as area specialists on the Gulf and those working on foreign policy issues on each of the Asian countries included Professionals in government and non government agencies will also find it very useful The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Middle Powers in Asia Pacific Multilateralism

Sarah Teo, 2022-11-25 Drawing on insights from differentiation theory this book examines the participation of middle powers in multilateralism Taking Australia Indonesia and South Korea as examples the book examines these countries roles in regional organizations and particularly during the creation of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC and East Asia Summit Through its analysis the book argues that middle powers pursue dilution of major power stratificatory forces as well as functionally differentiated roles for themselves in multilateral diplomacy The book sets out a valuable new framework to explain and understand the behaviour of middle powers in multilateralism

Harmony And Development: Asean-china Relations Tin Seng Lim, Hongyi

Lai, 2007-07-26 This book celebrates the 15th anniversary of China ASEAN dialogue which has captured the limelight as a key development in international relations in the Asia Pacific The contributions discuss a wide range of complex and challenging issues concerning ASEAN China relations in a readable informative concise and comprehensive way In three parts the volume begins with an introduction and three speeches The second and third parts discuss the political security and economic aspects of ASEAN China relations Some of the specific issues covered in the book include China s rise and its implication on ASEAN China s political and economic relations with ASEAN and China s relations with Singapore Malaysia Indonesia Vietnam Myanmar and the Philippines Contributors include leading scholars and analysts from these countries

The 'Local Turn' in Peacebuilding Joakim Ojendal,Isabell Schierenbeck,Caroline Hughes,2018-10-11 Contemporary practices of international peacebuilding and post conflict reconstruction are often unsatisfactory There is now a growing awareness of the significance of local governments and local communitites as an intergrated part of peacebuilding in order to improve quality and enhance precision of interventions In spite of this the local is rarely a key factor in peacebuilding hence everyday peace is hardly achieved The aim of this volume is threefold firstly it illuminates the substantial reasons for working with a more localised approach in politically volatile contexts Secondly it consolidates a growing debate on the significance of the local in these contexts Thirdly it problematizes the often too swiftly used concept the local and critically discuss to what extent it is at all feasible to integrate this into macro oriented and securitized contexts This is a unique volume tackling the local turn of peacebuilding in a comprehensive and critical way This book was published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

ASEAN-China Relations Saw Swee-Hock,2003-08-01 The past decade has witnessed rapid development in ASEAN China relations Both sides now have more in common than before though differences still exist ASEAN and China have established a promising strategic partnership ensuring peace stability co operation as well as prosperity for the region New challenges will however continue to emerge to test the resolve of the partnership This book examines some of the areas of convergence and divergence and the possible trajectories of the development of ASEAN China relations

The Emergence and Widening of Ethnic Divide in the Malaysian Educational system Tan Yao Sua,Sezali Md Darit, The existence of an ethnic divide is a common problem in multiethnic societies more so when these societies are straddled with contradictions reflected in their socioeconomic and political composition and configuration The existence of an ethnic divide in the educational sector is most unfortunate since one of the fundamental purposes of schooling in multiethnic societies is to achieve a common process of socialisation and enculturation among the different ethnic group to achieve a strong sense of social cohesion While Malaysia has aspired to provide a common or uniform system of schooling for the different ethnic groups since Independence such an aspiration was however compromised by the co existence of alternative pathways of education that are divided along ethnic lines There are four dimensions underpinning these ethnic divisions namely linguistic preferential religious and class This monograph explores the emergence and subsequent developments of these alternative pathways of education and their impact on Malaysia s nation building process
