Magazine Southern Silk Road Christoph Baumer, 2003 Trade, Commerce, and the State in the Roman World Andrew Wilson, Alan Bowman, 2017-10-27 This volume presents eighteen papers by leading Roman historians and archaeologists discussing trade in the Roman Empire during the period c 100 BC to AD 350 It focuses especially on the role of the Roman state in shaping the institutional framework for trade within and outside the empire in taxing that trade and in intervening in the markets to ensure the supply of particular commodities especially for the city of Rome and for the army As part of a novel interdisciplinary approach to the subject the chapters address its myriad facets on the basis of broadly different sources of evidence historical papyrological and archaeological They are grouped into three sections covering institutional factors taxation legal structures market regulation financial institutions evidence for long distance trade within the empire in wood stone glass and pottery and trade beyond the frontiers with the east as far as China India Arabia the Red Sea and the Sahara Rome's external trade with realms to the east emerges as being of particular significance but it is in the eastern part of the empire itself where the state appears to have adapted the mechanisms of taxation in collaboration with the elite holders of wealth to support its need for revenue On the other hand the price of that collaboration which was in effect a fiscal partnership ultimately led in the longer term in slightly different forms in the east and the west to a fundamental change in the political character of the empire Through a Land of Extremes Nicholas Clinch, Elizabeth Clinch, 2011-06-03 Teresa and St George Littledale were an unlikely British couple who explored Central Asia in the 1890s with their fox terrier The Littledales were very well known in their time for their extensive travels and exceptional adventures but have been almost completely forgotten this is the first book about their fascinating story St George Littledale received the Patron's Medal from the Royal Geographical Society but Teresa was overlooked For thirty years St George

Littledale and his wife Teresa mounted expeditions in North America and Asia Through a Land of Extremes gives a taste for a bygone time of travel into uncharted unknown territory when adventurers lived by a combination of wit charm and luck Of independent means the Littledales began in the American Rockies Yellowstone and Alaska These trips were followed by expeditions in the late 1880s in the Caucasus the Pamirs Russian Central Asia and Mongolia Their greatest exploit was a 14 month journey to Tibet in 1895 They were attempting to reach the Forbidden City of Lhasa the great unmet goal of Central Asian explorers In order to minimize their chances of being discovered before they neared their goal St George selected a route across the desolate uninhabited Tibetan Plateau At a 19 000 foot pass they were finally blocked by 150 armed Tibetans The Tibetans allowed them to continue over the pass to a suitable stopping place The Littledales had come within 49 miles of Lhasa closer than any other foreigners since 1846 This title is part of our LEGENDS AND LORE series Click here to learn more
