The Russian Air Force in the Eyes of German

Commanders Generalleutnant Walter Schwabedissen, 2017-06-28 The Russian Air Force in the Eyes of German Commanders by Generalleutnant a D Walter Schwabedissen is one of a series of historical studies written by or based on information supplied by former key officers of the GAF for the United States Air Force Historical Division The overall purpose of the series is twofold 1 To provide the U S Air Force with a comprehensive and insofar as possible authoritative history of a major air force which suffered defeat in World War II a history prepared by many of the principal and responsible leaders of that air force 2 to provide a firsthand account of that air force s unique combat in a major war especially its fight against the forces of the Soviet Union This series of studies therefore covers in large part virtually all phases of the Luftwaffe s operations and organization from its camouflaged origin in the Reichswehr during the period of secret German rearmament following World War I through its participation in the Spanish Civil War and its massive operations and final defeat in World War II with particular attention to the air war on the Eastern Front In World War II the Russian Air Force came of age The men most vitally concerned with this aside from the Russians themselves were commanders in the German armed forces The experience of these commanders then constitutes a unique source for information on an organization whose capabilities both past and future are of vital concern to the world The chief German experience with the Russian Air Force derives from World War II It was during this period that the Russians learned most from the Germans and the Germans learned most about the Russians This study exploits this broad German experience Compiled from the official records of the German Air Force and from reports written by German commanders who saw action in the Russian campaign it documents many of the Russian Air Force s achievements as well as its failures

Red Air Sanu Kainikara, 2007-10 The Russian Air Force carries the mantle of the erstwhile Red Air Force of the Soviet Union and has a long and illustrious history backed by grand traditions and customs The Russian Air Force is still coming to grips with its changed circumstances after the collapse of the Soviet Union and is perhaps in the best shape of the three armed forces to be able to lend credence to the Russian Federation s claim to international influence and power projection capabilities Doctrine is the reflection of a nation s character and air power doctrine is influenced by the strategic culture of a nation Nowhere else is this more apparent than in the case of the Russian Air Force The Red Air Force has been directly influenced by the political upheavals in the Soviet Union and now Russia but has displayed exemplary resilience in continuing to provide adequate support for government policies The impact of political ideology on the development of doctrine and air power has not been greater in any other air force around the world This book is an extension of a doctoral thesis produced in 2005 and is essential reading for anyone trying to come to grips with the intricate relationship that exists between national security imperatives political ideology and the development of military doctrine Back cover
