DEDICATORY EPISTLE

*Parlant de son âme au-dessus d'un âme d'élite:
Et regard la conscience humaine en fait faillite.
La voix divine est comme un rappel qui se tend L'âme des froids de l'oubli où le vent nous attend.
L'affliction, la chose affreuse et triste,
L'âme d'un homme se compare à la jeunesse oubliée,
Les larmes qu'il a au regard sont d'un air
Rien n'est à son aspect comme un chien dans son chenil.
L'âme d'un homme se voit mille fois plus
La chose humaine est la chose d'un homme
La chose humaine est la chose d'un homme
La chose humaine est la chose d'un homme
La chose humaine est la chose d'un homme*

A.C. Swinburne and the Singing Word Yisrael Levin, 2016-03-16 Focusing on Algernon Charles Swinburne's later writings this collection makes a case for the seriousness and significance of the writer's mature work While Swinburne's scandalous early poetry has received considerable critical attention the thoughtful rich spiritually and politically informed poetry that began to emerge in his thirties has been generally neglected This volume addresses the need for a fuller understanding of Swinburne's career that includes his fiction aesthetic ideology and analyses of Shakespeare and the great French writers Among the key features of the collection is the contextualizing of Swinburne's work in new contexts such as Victorian mythography continental aestheticism positivism and empiricism Individual essays examine among other topics the dialect poems and Swinburne's position as a regional poet Swinburne as a transition figure from nineteenth century aesthetic writing to the professionalized criticism that dominates the twentieth century Swinburne's participation in the French literary scene Swinburne's friendships with women writers and the selections made for anthologies from the nineteenth century to the present Taken together the essays offer scholars a richer portrait of Swinburne's importance as a poet critic and fiction writer

Jewish Preaching in Times of War, 1800 - 2001 Marc Saperstein, 2012-08-31 Wartime sermons offer a window on to how Jews perceive themselves in relation to the majority society and how Jewish and national values are reconciled when the fate of a nation is at stake They also reveal a great deal about how rabbis guide their communities through the challenges of their times The sermons reproduced here were delivered by rabbis from across the Jewish spectrum and each is accompanied by a comprehensive introduction and detailed notes

The Victorian Poet (Routledge Revivals) Joseph Bristow, 2014-03-18 The practice of poetry in the Victorian period was characterised by an extreme diversity of styles preoccupations and subject matter This anthology attempts to draw out some of the main focuses of interest in the Victorian poet No Victorian poet produced an overall theory of poetry yet all accepted it as a natural vehicle of expression and for some subjects in particular sexuality the only literary mode Indeed the sexual question was made even more acute by the sudden phenomenon of the poetess and the relation of poetry to gender raised interesting new critical questions At the same time the cultural role of the poet came under increasing debate Victorian poetry was the first contemporary poetry to be studied This selection of central texts illustrates these pressures on the Victorian practice of poetry and the introductory remarks suggest ways in which theory can be related to the
