Symbol And Theology In Early Judaism:

Symbol and Theology in Early Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1991 Analyzes the new mode of talking about God that took shape in synagogue art and rabbinic writing in the fifth and sixth centuries CE and appealed not to propositional but to symbolic modes of discourse Demonstrates how it combined and recombined various symbols to make normative theological statements The 1991 edition was published by Augsburg Fortress Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Handbook of Rabbinic Theology Jacob Neusner, 2021-12-28 From his extensive and intensive study of the rabbinic literature Jacob Neusner shows how the rabbinic documents give expression to a very real if implicit theological system While the rabbinic literature is often seen as a collection of miscellaneous responses to questions arising from study of the Hebrew Bible and its application to contemporary life Neusner sees a system behind and embodied in the various writings He discusses the ways in which the divine thought and the human thinking that sought faithfully to interpret it actually came to expression and treats what he calls the grammar of the divine self expression in order to help us see the theological structure that it implies Then he shows how this implicit system is expressed in the rules for the life of the people that God has chosen as his own Citing passages from almost all of the mishnaic tractates Neusner shows how they fit into and give expression to the system This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details A Theological

Commentary to the Midrash: Song of Songs Rabbah Jacob Neusner, 2001 This theological commentary to the Rabbinic Midrash explores a simple proposition in three parts I The reading of Scripture by principal parts of the Rabbinic Midrash is formed by compositions and composites that are animated by a cogent theological system II These primary components of the Midrash compilations further are in part aimed at systematic demonstrations of theorems of a theological character III While forming a principal part of a large theological structure and system each document is unique This commentary in its concluding chapter presents what is common to the animating theology of Rabbinic Judaism in all its documentary components and what is unique to Song of Songs Rabbah The Social Structure of the Rabbinic Movement in Roman

Palestine Catherine Hezser, 1997 While rabbinic literature enables us to know more about the rabbis than any of the other members of the Jewish population of Roman Palestine the social structure of the rabbinic movement remained largely unexplored In the present study Catherine Hezser combines a critical analysis of the available literary legal and epigraphic evidence with a selective employment of sociological models She examines the definition of the boundaries of the rabbinic movement deals with the nature of the relationships amongst rabbis and investigates the relationship between rabbis and their contemporaries that is students the community and the patriarch BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Early Jewish Exegesis and Theological Controversy Isaac
