Symbolic Narratives African Cinema:

Symbolic Narratives/African Cinema June Givanni, 2019-07-25 In the conference Africa and the History of Cinematic Ideas held in London in 1995 film makers cultural theorists and critics gathered to debate a range of issues Views were exchanged on such topics as imperialism and the problems of distribution African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms

Viewing African Cinema in the Twenty-first Century Mahir Şaul, Ralph A. Austen, 2010-10-05 African cinema in the 1960s originated mainly from Francophone countries It resembled the art cinema of contemporary Europe and relied on support from the French film industry and the French state Beginning in 1969 the biennial Festival panafricain du cinéma et de la télévision de Ouagadougou FESPACO held in Burkina Faso became the major showcase for these films But since the early 1990s a new phenomenon has come to dominate the African cinema world mass marketed films shot on less expensive video cameras These Nollywood films so named because many originate in southern Nigeria are a thriving industry dominating the world of African cinema Viewing African Cinema in the Twenty first

Century is the first book to bring together a set of essays offering a comparison of these two main African cinema modes Contributors Ralph A Austen and Mahir aul Jonathan Haynes Onookome Okome Birgit Meyer Abdalla Uba Adamu Matthias Krings Vincent Bouchard Laura Fair Jane Bryce Peter Rist Stefan Sereda Lindsey Green Simms and Cornelius Moore

Ethics and Aesthetics in Contemporary African Cinema James S. Williams,2019-03-21 Since the beginnings of African cinema the realm of beauty on screen has been treated with suspicion by directors and critics alike James S Williams explores an exciting new generation of African directors including Abderrahmane Sissako Mahamat Saleh Haroun Fanta R gina Nacro Alain Gomis Newton I Aduaka Jean Pierre Bekolo and Mati Diop who have begun to reassess and embrace the concept of cinematic beauty by not reducing it to ideological critique or the old ideals of pan Africanism Locating the aesthetic within a range of critical fields the rupturing of narrative spectacle and violence by montage the archives of the everyday in the afropolis the plurivocal mysteries of sound and language male intimacy and desire the borderzones of migration and transcultural drift this study reveals the possibility for new non conceptual kinds of beauty in African cinema abstract material migrant erotic convulsive queer Through close readings of key works such as Life on Earth 1998 The Night of Truth 2004 Bamako 2006 Daratt Dry Season 2006 A Screaming Man 2010 Tey Today 2012 The Pirogue 2012 Mille soleils 2013 and Timbuktu 2014 Williams argues that contemporary African filmmakers are proposing propitious ethical forms of relationality and intersubjectivity These stimulate new modes of cultural resistance and transformation that serve to redefine the transnational and the cosmopolitan as well as the very notion of the political in postcolonial art cinema

African Film and Literature Lindiwe Dovey, 2009 Analyzing a range of South African and West African films inspired by African and non African literature Lindiwe Dovey identifies a specific trend in contemporary African filmmaking one in which filmmakers are using the embodied audiovisual medium of film to offer a critique of physical and psychological violence Against a detailed history of the medium s savage introduction and exploitation by colonial powers in two very different African contexts Dovey examines the complex ways in which African filmmakers are preserving mediating and critiquing their own cultures while seeking a united vision of the future More than merely representing socio cultural realities in Africa these films engage with issues of colonialism and postcolonialism updating both the history and the literature they adapt to address contemporary audiences in Africa and elsewhere Through this deliberate and radical re historicization of texts and realities Dovey argues that African filmmakers have developed a method of filmmaking that is altogether distinct from European and American forms of adaptation
