The Modern Law Of Contract:

The Modern Law of Contract Richard Stone, 2013 The Modern Law of Contract provides a detailed account of the subject in England and Wales Centred around a thorough analysis of case law and statute it also takes into account a variety of theoretical approaches The Modern Law of Contract Richard Stone, James Devenney, 2017-07-14 The Modern Law of Contract is a clear and logical textbook written by an experienced author team with well over 50 years teaching and examining experience Fully updated to address the Consumer Rights Act 2015 and recent key cases in Contract Law it offers a carefully tailored overview of all key topics for LLB and GDL courses The book also includes a number of learning features designed to enhance comprehension and aid exam preparation allowing the reader to understand and remember core topics boxed chapter summaries offer a useful checklist for students while illustrative diagrams help to clarify difficult concepts identify important cases and assess their relevance Key case features highlight and contextualise the most significant cases reflect on how contract law operates in context highlighted For thought features ask students to consider what if scenarios while in focus features offer critical commentary on the law consolidate learning and prepare for assessment further reading lists and comparison website directions at the end of each chapter direct you to additional interactive resources to test and reinforce your knowledge Clearly written and easy to use The Modern Law of Contract enables undergraduate students of contract law to fully engage with the topic and gain a profound understanding of this fundamental area Modern Law of Contracts: Breach and remedies Howard O. Hunter, 1986 A Treatise on the Modern Law of Contracts Charles Fisk Beach (Jr.), 1896 The Modern Law of Contracts Bruce W. Frier, James J. White, 2005 This contracts casebook includes introductions that quickly orient students within unfamiliar territories Cases present both the doctrine applied and in some instances the shortcomings of that doctrine The authors express their disagreement about basic issues so that students can experience the range of possible in modern contract law To save time the authors avoid extensive citation of academic scholarship except as it pertains to the cases being studied Certain traditional subjects such as offer and acceptance and consideration are reduced to the bare minimum where more pivotal subjects such as form contracts and arbitration clauses are considered at length Modern Law of Contracts Howard O. Hunter, 1986 Contract Law in South Africa Louis F. Van Huyssteen, Catherine J. Maxwell, 2019-08-05 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of the law of contracts in South Africa and Wales covers every aspect of the subject definition and classification of contracts contractual liability relation to the law of property good faith burden of proof defects penalty clauses arbitration clauses remedies in case of non performance damages power of attorney and much more Lawyers who handle transnational contracts will appreciate the explanation of fundamental differences in terminology application and procedure from one legal system to another as well as the international aspects of contract law Throughout the book the treatment emphasizes drafting considerations An introduction in which contracts are defined and contrasted to torts quasi contracts and property is followed by a discussion of the concepts of consideration or cause and other underlying principles of the formation of contract. Subsequent chapters cover the doctrines of relative effect, termination of contract and remedies for non performance. The second part of the book recognizing the need to categorize an agreement as a specific contract in order to determine the rules which apply to it describes the nature of agency, sale, lease, building contracts and other types of contract. Facts are presented in such a way that readers who are unfamiliar with specific terms and concepts in varying contexts will fully grasp their meaning and significance. Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for business and legal professionals alike. Lawyers representing parties with interests in South Africa will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative contract law.

The Modern Law of Marine Insurance Rhidian

Thomas, 2015-10-14 This latest and fourth volume in the series comprises ten contributions written by an expert team of academics and practitioners and which collectively analyse and expound many of the contemporary legal issues and debates in the law and practice of marine insurance. Some of the contributions touch upon areas of the law which will be amended by the Insurance Act 2015 and provide an insight to the future changes in the law. The topics covered are: An assessment of the Marine Insurance Act 1906; Construction of marine policies; Litigating against brokers; the measure of damages; Co insurance and leading underwriter clauses; Duties of good faith of insurers and reinsurers; Assured right to interest when a policy is avoided; The impact of The Cendor MOPU on the Institute Cargo Clauses; Fraudulent claims; Aspects of Subrogation; Conflict of laws in light of the recast Brussels I Regulation. This book is essential reading for maritime lawyers, brokers and insurance market practitioners, academics and companies associated with the marine insurance markets worldwide.

Conceptual and

Contextual Perspectives on the Modern Law of Treaties Michael J. Bowman, Dino Kritsiotis, 2018-10-31 In recent years there has been a flourishing body of work on the Law of Treaties crucial for all fields within international law. However scholarship on modern treaty law falls into two distinct strands which have not previously been effectively synthesized. One concerns the investigation of concepts which are fundamental to or inherent in the law of treaties generally such as consent, object and purpose, breach of obligation and provisional application while the other focuses upon the application of treaties and of treaty law in particular substantive e.g. human rights, international humanitarian law, investment protection, environmental regulation or institutional contexts including the Security Council, the World Health Organization, the International Labour Organization and the World Trade Organization. This volume represents the culmination of a series of collaborative explorations by leading experts into the operation, development and effectiveness of the modern law of treaties as viewed through these contrasting perspectives.
