The Mountains Laugh Because He Walked Upon Them A Remembrance Of My Daddy:

The Laughter of My Father Carlos Bulosan, 2018-12-01 The rich man's children ate their good food and grew thinner and more peaked The Bulosans next door went on eating their poor and meagre food laughed and grew fat So the rich man sued Father Bulosan for stealing the spirit of his food And Father paid him in his own coin while the laughter of the Bulosans and the judge drove the rich man's family out of the courtroom The Bulosans lived in Binalonan in the Philippine province of Pangasinan But the episodes of Father's history that his son Carlos retells belong to universal and timeless comedy No one can remain unmoved by Father's excursions into politics cock fighting violin playing or the concoction of love potions Twenty four such stories make up the rich and funny collection called The Laughter of My Father In the winter of 1939 when I was out of work I went to San Pedro California and stood in the rain for hours with hundreds of men and women hoping to get a place at the fish canneries To forget the monotony of waiting I started to write the title story It was finished when I reached the gate but the cold hours that followed made me forget many things In November 1942 when there was too much pain and tragedy in the world I found the story in my hat I sent it to The New Yorker a magazine I had not read before and in three weeks a letter came Tell us some more about the Filipinos it said I said Yes sir I wrote about everything that I could remember about my town Binalonan in the province of Pangasinan I received letters from my countrymen telling me that I wrote about them and their towns It came to me that in writing the story of my town I was actually depicting the life of the peasantry in the Philippines These stories and 18 others are now gathered in this volume For the first time the Filipino people are depicted as human beings I hope you will enjoy reading about them Carlos Bulosan
