Securities Regulation in China Zhu Sanzhu, 2021-10-01 A co publication with Simmonds and Hill In this important study Dr Zhu Sanzhu offers a thorough account of the tortuous passage of China from an experimental securities market subject to regional and local or ministerial regulation to a full fledged national securities law China has conducted its securities experiments within a limited private and quasi private sector not linking them as has been true in Central and Eastern Europe to the rapid privatisation of the instruments and means of production The capital markets in China are for certain actors in the economy a test of economic performance economic efficiency and public confidence Dr Zhu also provides a translation of the Securities Law of the People's Republic of China along with a glossary of Chinese terms This volume is an essential resource for all those engaging in business with China or studying the integration of the Chinese economy into the world community Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

Finance Capital Today François Chesnais, 2016-09-07 Finance Capital Today is shortlisted for the The Isaac and Tamara Deutscher Memorial Prize 2017 Finance Capital Today presents a rich new analysis of the specific features of contemporary capitalism notably its truly global nature and its financialisation calling on Marxist analyses of the concentration centralisation and globalisation of capital and Marx's theory of interest bearing and fictitious capital Chesnais shows how financial globalisation and the exponential growth of financial assets have developed alongside the globalisation of productive capital paying special attention to the contemporary operations of transnational corporations and global oligopoly He argues that the macroeconomic perspective is one in which large amounts of capital are looking for profitable investment in a setting of underlying overproduction and low profits The outcome will be low global growth repeated financial shocks and the growing interconnection between the environmental and economic crises

Trust Geoffrey Hosking, 2014-08-07 Today there is much talk of a crisis of trust a crisis which is almost certainly genuine but usually misunderstood Trust A History offers a new perspective on the ways in which trust and distrust have functioned in past societies providing an empirical and historical basis against which the present crisis can be examined and suggesting ways in which the concept of trust can be used as a tool to understand our own and other societies Geoffrey Hosking argues that social trust is mediated through symbolic systems such as religion and money and the institutions associated with them such as churches and banks Historically these institutions have nourished trust but the resulting trust networks have tended to create quite tough boundaries around themselves across which distrust is projected against outsiders Hosking also shows how nation states have been particularly good at absorbing symbolic systems and generating trust among large numbers of people while also erecting distinct boundaries around themselves despite an increasingly global economy He asserts that in the modern world it has become common to entrust major resources to institutions we know little about and suggests that we need to learn from historical experience and temper this with more traditional forms of trust or become an ever more distrustful society with potentially very destabilising consequences
