Sixty Instant Messages To Tom Moore:

Sixty Instant Messages to Tom Moore Paul Muldoon, Lee Gurga, 2005      Haiku in English Jim Kacian, Philip Rowland, Allan Burns, 2013-08-19 The first anthology to map the full range of haiku in the English tradition Haiku in English is an anthology of more than 800 brilliantly chosen poems that were originally written in English by over 200 poets from around the world Although haiku originated as a Japanese art form it has found a welcome home in the English speaking world This collection tells the story for the first time of Anglophone haiku charting its evolution over the last one hundred years and placing it within its historical and literary context It features an engaging introduction by former U S poet laureate Billy Collins and an insightful historical overview by leading haiku poet editor and publisher Jim Kacian The selections range from the first fully realized haiku in English Ezra Pound's In a Station of the Metro to plentiful examples by haiku virtuosos such as John Wills Marlene Mountain Nick Virgilio and Raymond Roseliep and to investigations into the genre by eminent poets like John Ashbery Allen Ginsberg and Seamus Heaney The editors explore the genre's changing forms and themes highlighting its vitality and its breadth of poetic styles and content Among the many poems on offer are organic form experiments by E E Cummings and Michael McClure evocations of black culture by Richard Wright and Sonia Sanchez and the seminal efforts of Jack Kerouac      Horse Latitudes Paul Muldoon, 2025-06-25 The title of Horse Latitudes Paul Muldoon's tenth collection of poetry refers to those areas thirty degrees north and south of the equator where sailing ships tend to be becalmed where stasis if not stagnation is the order of the day From Bosworth Field to Beijing the Boyne to Bull Run from a series of text messages to the nineteenth century Irish poet Tom Moore to an elegy for Warren Zevon and from post Agreement Ireland to George W Bush's America this book presents us with fields of battle and fields of debate in which we often seem to have come to a standstill but in which language that has been debased may yet be restructured and made current to our predicament Horse Latitudes is a triumphant new collection by one of the most esteemed poets of our time      The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry Irene De Angelis, 2016-04-30 The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry provides a stimulating original and lively analysis of the Irish Japanese literary connection from the early 1960s to 2007 While for some this may partly remain Oscar Wilde's mode of style this book will show that there is more of Japan in the work of contemporary Irish poets than a tinkling of china and tea into china Drawing on unpublished new sources Irene De Angelis includes poets from a broad range of cultural backgrounds with richly varied styles Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson and Paul Muldoon together with younger poets such as Sinéad Morrissey and Joseph Woods Including close readings of selected poems this is an indispensable companion for all those interested in the broader historical and cultural research on the effect of oriental literature in modernist and postmodernist Irish poetry      The Poetry of Paul Muldoon Jefferson Holdridge, 2008-08-01 The Poetry of Paul Muldoon introduces the student and general reader to the critical discussion surrounding Muldoon's oeuvre as well as to his major themes It examines the poet's meditations on culture and nature human and animal speculations on the act of perception figures fragmented by the Troubles and philosophical considerations of colonisation It then discusses what rank among the most beautiful and intricate elegies of our time For Muldoon art's complicity in suffering is a political self-indicting question which his best poems endeavour to answer If sometimes this Pulitzer Prize winner insists that art has a positive role to play at other times he fears that it merely feeds off the carnage This critical book shows how for Muldoon art should not merely repeat the devastation of the world although he is afraid that it does and engages in bitter moral despair that places his work among the very best any contemporary poet has written The Poetry of Paul Muldoon unearths difficult questions of form with a metaphysical significance that is suitable to our times

Author Beowulf Sheehan, 2018-10-09 A beautiful and moving collection of photographs by Beowulf Sheehan whose work captures the essence of 200 of our most prominent writers historians playwrights and poets Beowulf Sheehan is considered to be his generation's foremost literary portrait photographer having made portraits of the literary luminaries of our time across the globe from Roxane Gay to Masha Gessen Patti Smith to Zadie Smith Karl Ove Knausgaard to J K Rowling and Jonathan Franzen to Toni Morrison In Authors Sheehan presents the most insightful intimate and revealing portraits of these artists made in his studio in their homes in shopping malls and concert halls on rooftops and in parking lots on the beach and among trees surrounded by flowers and in clock towers Following an enlightening foreword by Salman Rushdie Beowulf Sheehan shares an essay offering insights in the poignant and memorable moments he experienced while making these portraits A treasure gift for readers and lovers of portrait photography Authors is the only book of its kind to appear in more than a decade

Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Canon Kenneth Keating, 2017-03-27 This book makes an important intervention into debates about influence and contemporary Irish poetry Supported throughout by incisive reflections upon allusion word choice and formal structure Keating brings to the discussion a range of new and lesser known voices which decisively complicate and illuminate its pronounced concerns with inheritance history and the Irish poetic canon Steven Matthews Professor of English Literature University of Reading UK and author of Irish Poetry Politics History Negotiation and Yeats As Precursor This book is about the way that contemporary Irish poetry is dominated and shaped by criticism It argues that critical practices tend to construct reductive singular and static understandings of poetic texts identities careers and maps of the development of modern Irish poetry This study challenges the attempt present within such criticism to arrest stabilize and diffuse the threat multiple alternative histories and understandings of texts would pose to the formation of any singular pyramidal canon Offered here are detailed close readings of the recent work of some of the most established and high profile Irish poets such as Paul Muldoon and Medbh McGuckian along with emerging poets to foreground an alternative critical methodology which undermines the traditional canonical pursuit of singular meaning and definition through embracing the troubling indeterminacy and multiplicity to be found within contemporary Irish poetry

The Life of Words David-Antoine Williams, 2020-05-07 For centuries investigations into the origins of words were entwined with investigations into the origins of humanity and the cosmos With the development of modern etymological practice in the nineteenth century however many cherished etymologies were shown to be impossible and the very idea of original true meaning asserted in the etymology of etymology declared a fallacy Structural linguistics later held that the relationship between sound and meaning in language was arbitrary or unmotivated a truth that has survived with small modification until today On the other hand the relationship between sound and meaning has been a prime motivator of poems at all times throughout history The Life of Words studies a selection of poets inhabiting our Age of the Arbitrary whose auditory semantic sensibilities have additionally been motivated by a historical sense of the language troubled as it may be by claims and counterclaims of fallacy or true meaning Arguing that etymology activates peculiar kinds of epistemology in the modern poem the book pays extended attention to poems by G M Hopkins Anne Waldman Ciaran Carson and Anne Carson and to the collected works of Geoffrey Hill Paul Muldoon Seamus Heaney R F Langley and J H Prynne formidable anthology that explores the intricate and evolving landscape of feminist literature. It spans an impressive array of literary styles and genres from the dramatic depth of Victorian novels to the poignant realism of early 20th century narratives. This collection encapsulates the feminist consciousness through its selection of diverse and groundbreaking works. Standout pieces in the anthology take the reader through transformations in gender roles, societal expectations, and personal emancipation, reflecting an array of experiences and challenges faced by women across varying socio-cultural landscapes. The anthology brings together an esteemed assembly of authors and thinkers whose works have significantly shaped feminist discourse. With contributors such as Charlotte Brontë, Virginia Woolf, and Sojourner Truth among others, this volume reflects a tapestry of voices that helped to define and challenge the sociopolitical boundaries of their times. It aligns with pivotal literary movements such as romanticism and realism, providing a rich historical and cultural context that enhances the narrative of women's struggle and empowerment. The pioneering contributions collected here transcend geographic and temporal boundaries, weaving a narrative that is both extensive and enlightening. This anthology is highly recommended for those seeking to immerse themselves in feminist literature's vast and dynamic landscape. It offers an unparalleled opportunity to engage with the myriad perspectives and styles of its esteemed contributors, presenting a comprehensive dialogue on the timeless themes of gender, power, and identity. The breadth of insight contained within these pages represents not just a historical account but an ongoing conversation, making it an invaluable resource for both academic study and personal reflection on the multifaceted journey towards equality.
